SATURDAY MORNING .....JAN. 17, 1885.

CHESTERVILLE AND VICINITY.

Messrs. Editors:—The first of the year brought several changes: Jervis Spencer, Esq., removed from his late residence to the Dr. Nowland property in this village. S. E. T. Startt, from Chestertown, now occupies the Porter house. Alfred King has removed from his farm to the easternmost Lemley house. Peter Stevens has removed from the Schwatka to the Spry blacksmith shop; J. L. Byron from the Schwatka to the Spry wheelwright shop; leaving the first named shops vacant. Davis & Lockerman, blacksmiths, have gone to Masseys; Wm. T. Slagle to Spry's Gate.

There are more or less thefts being committed in the neighborhood. Charles England lost a lot of turkeys recently. The granary of Noble E. Pennington was entered and a lot of corn taken. Thirty bushels of wheat were stolen from the granary of Mr. Wm. P. Miller on Sunday night last. As yet, no clue to the thieves.

Mr. L. W. Ford declines the honor the NEWS conferred upon him last week in connection with the Vincent Reynolds affair. Reynolds has not been at his house, but at the house of Mr. James S. Ford, on the Walmsley farm, as stated.

At a late entertainment given by the Sabbath School of the Locust Grove M. E. Church, the school presented the superintendent, Mr. T. J. Shalleross, with a very handsome hanging lamp as a token of their esteem.

The scalded children reported last week are getting along pretty well.

Mr. Edward Cooper was probably the first man in this neighborhood to take an aerial voyage this year. Being down about the barn recently he came in contact with a pet heifer, who elevated him on her horns and then, with the speed of a velocipede, started for the house and discharged her freight rather unceremoniously upon a wood pile. No bones were broken, but there were some skinned shins and torn breeches. As fond of science as Mr. C. is he is perfectly willing to let someone else try this air navigation for him, and he will furnish the machine gratis. First come, first served.

Mr. N. E. Pennington and family have returned from Seaford, Del., where they have been visiting Mr. H. C. Pennington, of the Colburd House. Mr. A. L. Hudson, of this village, is attending the U. S. Court in Baltimore as a witness in a case in which the Chester River Steamboat Company are concerned. WALTER.

A BRILLIANT RECEPTION.

STILL POND, January 11, 1885.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—A grand surprise party composed of about sixty young ladies and gentlemen of this neighborhood, and indeed, of nearly all parts of this county, assembled at the residence of Mr. R. M. Rouse, Elmwood, near Kennedyville, on the 9th of this month, and had a very pleasant time. Mr. Rouse and family hearing of it in time had about fifteen or twenty rooms brilliantly illuminated and heated, and when we drove up the lawn a more beautiful sight than that magnificent mansion it has never been my lot to behold. As we entered the capacious halls sounds of rare music and happy voices greeted our ears, and looking in at the piano, surrounded by a bevy of her young lady friends, who were visiting her from other parts of the county. It was a very pleasant surprise to us to meet so many beautiful young ladies, among the number I think I can recall some of their names, as I had the pleasure of an introduction to nearly all: The first being Miss Annie, eldest daughter of Judge Hyland, of Galena, a very beautiful and amiable young lady; Miss Minnie, the charming and accomplished daughter of Mr. R. C. Jones, who has but recently moved up in that neighborhood; Miss Nowland, a lovely brunette, and Miss Cacy, a pretty little blonde, who sang while Miss Nannie played, "When the Robins Nest Again." It was rendered very effectively. There were others, two of whom I heard were from Philadelphia, but I fail to remember their names; but one especially, a charming little dark-eyed beauty, in black satin with cherry ribbons, was very generally admired, as much for her ladylike deportment as for her charming manner of dancing—for she and Miss Nannie Rouse were generally conceded the most accomplished dancers on the floor—and there were some very good dancers there I assure you; indeed, I did not see anyone on the floor who could not dance well. There were sixteen couples on the floor every set, but the room being very large there was plenty of room for all. As I said before, the family hearing of it, made up their minds to do all they could for the pleasure of their guests, so they had the carpets removed from the banquetting hall and the floor thoroughly washed and waxed, and it was just splendid, while the music, of several pieces, was excellent. Mr. Rouse, so I am informed, had given a no dinner that day to his three daughters and in honor of their friends who were there. He seemed to enjoy the company very much, and his charming wife—a general favorite with all the young folks—looked almost as young and beautiful as her daughters; truly, she is a good woman, kind to all and slighting none. I heard one of her daughters remark to a friend: "Have you seen anything of my angel mother around here lately?" I stepped up to her and said: "Why do you call her your angel mother?" She replied, "Because she is so good." I thought it was the most beautiful tribute I ever heard a child pay to a mother; but she is a peerless mother herself of one of the sweetest little cherubs I ever saw, and she being the only child at the house that evening she was of course the centre of attraction. I asked her name and she told me "Clara Louise Jones," quite plainly for a child of her age. I was informed by her mother that she names all her pets after herself—such as cats, chicks and dolls; she is certainly a very bright, beautiful and interesting child. However, I have sadly wandered from my subject and will now return to the parlors and try to inform you, as well as a "horrid man" can, how some of the ladies were dressed. I could not begin to tell you about half of them, but will simply say in justice to all that they were dressed in good taste and elegance. Miss Alice Rouse, a handsome brunette, was richly attired in a dark Nile silk and brocaded satin with gold ornaments; Mrs. J. C. Jones, her sister, a queenly-looking blonde, looked very lovely in a dark blue velvet dress with coral and gold ornaments; Miss Nannie, the youngest sister, the pet and idol of the entire family and neighborhood as well, looked still more lovely in a rich black silk, trimmed with embossed velvet, with amethyst and gold jewelry; Miss Annie Hyland was also very richly attired in a garnet velvet dress and appropriate ornaments; Miss Minnie Jones, a very lovely brunette, was handsomely attired in a ruby-colored velvet; Miss Mollie Nowland was richly attired in a handsome black silk, magnificently beaded all over the front; Miss Cacy looked very sweet as usual in an electric blue silk. A dress worn by Miss McKnett is worthy of mention but it is of a color indescribable, suffice it to say that it was very charming and novel, having a loose vest and lots of ribbons. I think it the largest surprise party I ever attended as well as the most enjoyable one. I know that no surprise party is as select as a private one, and such was the case this time to a small degree. If the family had have sent out the invitations for a party there would have been lots of their friends that knew nothing of this invited, and a few I expect that were there would possibly have been left out. However, in justice to Mr. Rouse and family, I will venture to say that all were treated right, and, as everyone seemed to appreciate it, I see no cause for grumbling. Among the gentlemen present were Mr. J. C. Jones, Mr. John Parrott, of Still Pond's most gallant beaux; George Howard, Clay and Herbert Lusby, Townsend Crew, John Archibald, Ed. Bowers, Harry Hyland, Harry Jones, Geo. W. Rouse was away on a visit to Philadelphia. His absence was much regretted by all. VISITOR.

TORREYSON'S NEW CART.

What The World Has Been Waiting for Since the Year 1.

The Carson Appeal says: Mr. Torreyson, the blacksmith of this city, is noted for his kindness to animals. He has just built a road cart, now on exhibition at his blacksmith shop, which is destined to revolutionize traveling by road, and to materially lighten the labors of that noble animal, the horse.

The idea is to occasionly give the horse a chance to ride in the cart as well as the driver. The idea was first suggested to Mr. Torreyson by seeing a turtle moving along the road carrying his shell with him.

The vehicle made by Mr. Torreyson has four high wheels, and the place between them arched so that the horse is hitched under the wagon between the wheels, his head projecting a little beyond the front wheels and his tail barely clearing the hind wheels. The driver sits just over the horse's neck and the others in the wagon face on each side.

The horse is so fastened that the pulling is distributed over his body and does not all come on his neck and shoulders. In this position he is greatly protected from the sun and storms, and thereby enabled to make long journeys with less fatigue.

But the principal part of the invention lies in a belly band about 4 feet wide passing under the horse. When you reach the top of a long hill, down which a horse would have to go slowly as he held back the load, you simply turn a crank and it lifts the horse off his feet several inches from the ground; the vehicle then runs down the hill of its own momentum.

It is provided with a steering apparatus and a brake, that the vehicle may be steered and its velocity regulated.

Several times during the day the tired horse has a chance to ride, and is very much rested. Also when the horse attempts to run away you wind up the crank and he is lifted off the ground perfectly helpless. All the dust raised by the animal goes out behind the wagon and does not reach the driver.

HEAVY SUIT AGAINST A MILLIONAIRE.—James Deshon, a millionaire stockbroker in Boston, has been sued in that city for a breach of promise by Lillian S. Walker, a young and prepossessing widow, of New York. Deshon, is a bachelor. According to the papers in the case he made the acquaintance of Mrs. Walker about two years ago. Before many weeks he proposed, and the widow accepted his offer of marriage. The wedding day was set, the bride's dresses purchased and everything put in readiness for the ceremony. The day before the wedding Deshon became suddenly ill, and the marriage was postponed. Before that day arrived the old man again fell ill. The bride then became suspicious that her aged suitor was endeavoring to break off the marriage. When spoken to about it he told her that he could not marry her. She at once commenced court proceedings. Deshon denies that he ever promised to marry the widow and says the whole affair is a scheme to extort money from him by blackmail. The case will be tried at an early day, and the details promise to be spicy.

MRS. BELVA LOCKWOOD comes forward and in true womanly style declares that the late election wasn't fair. She wants Senator Hoar to insist that the votes cast for her in the various States be counted and that the electoral vote of Indiana be given her. She also insists that the vote of New York shall not be cast for Cleveland, on the ground that if the 1,336 votes cast for her in that State had been counted for her he would not have been given a plurality. This phase of the electoral muddle leads to the horrible suspicion that the fair Mrs. Lockwood was running in the interests of Blaine and that she means to count him in anyway. It was doubtless real mean that Mrs. Lockwood wasn't elected herself, but as to electing Blaine by the plan proposed by the defeated candidatess, that is simply out of question. It can't be done, even to please a lady.

IT is known perhaps, to but few persons in this county that Governor McLane, before appointing Mr. Charles F. Holland, of the Wicomico bar, to succeed Senator E. K. Wilson as associate Judge of the first Judicial Circuit, tendered the position to Hon. Geo. W. Covington. —Wicomico Shield.

THE Bar Association of Erie county, N. Y., has decided to give a banquet in honor of the advancement of President-elect Cleveland, one of its members. The date of the banquet will be suited to the convenience of the guest.

PROF. ASCHERFELD requests us to say that he will for the next few weeks make Chestertown his headquarters. Orders directed to Box 129 will reach him.

HARD TIMES call for greater economy. If you visit Baltimore and desire to combine comfort and economy, stop at the "Maltby House." *

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:

MILL NOTICE.

THE "GALENA MILLS,"

better known as "Miller's Mills," have been under repairs and are now in first-class order. We are now ready to grind Wheat and Corn for our customers.

Our motto of milling is to guarantee satisfaction to all customers in way of turn-out and good flour and meal. We will gladly take back and pay cash for any bad flour we may make from good wheat. Try us and see what we will do for you. We have put in a Corn and Cob Crusher to grind corn on the cob for feeding purposes.

☞ WHEAT AND CORN WANTED, for which the cash will be paid at highest market prices.

☞ FLOUR, MEAL, and all kinds of Mill Feed for sale at the lowest market prices. For our reputation and responsibility we refer you to any of our former customers in and around Chestertown, or to the editors of this paper.

Very resp'y,
WM. J. SPICER.

Notice to Tax-Payers of 3d District.

THE tax books for the Third District are now in my hands and the bill of each individual tax-payer is ready for settlement. I hope that payment will be made promptly, thereby saving me the disagreeable duty of resorting to legal measures.

The law explicitly requires that I shall proceed WITHIN THIRTY DAYS from the date of receiving the books to collect, so that I have no option in the matter.

I may be found at Worton Station every Tuesday afternoon and at the court-house in Chestertown on Saturdays.

AYER'S Hair Vigor

restores, with the gloss and freshness of youth, faded or gray hair to a natural, rich brown color, or deep black, as may be desired. By its use light or red hair may be darkened, thin hair thickened, and baldness often, though not always, cured.

It checks falling of the hair, and stimulates a weak and sickly growth to vigor. It prevents and cures scurf and dandruff, and heals nearly every disease peculiar to the scalp. As a Ladies' Hair Dressing, the VIGOR is unequalled; it contains neither oil nor dye, renders the hair soft, glossy, and silken in appearance, and imparts a delicate, agreeable, and lasting perfume.

MR. C. P. BRICHER writes from Kirby, O., July 3, 1882: "Last fall my hair commenced falling out, and in a short time I became nearly bald. I used part of a bottle of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, which stopped the falling of the hair, and started a new growth. I have now a full head of hair growing vigorously, and am convinced that but for the use of your preparation I should have been entirely bald."

J. W. BOWEN, proprietor of the McArthur (Ohio) Enquirer, says: "AYER'S HAIR VIGOR is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair, and makes it glossy and soft. The VIGOR is also a sure cure for dandruff. Not within my knowledge has the preparation ever failed to give entire satisfaction."

MR. ANGUS FAIRBAIRN, leader of the celebrated "Fairbairn Family" of Scottish Vocalists, writes from Boston, Mass., Feb. 6, 1880: "Ever since my hair began to give silver evidence of the change which feeling time procureth, I have used AYER'S HAIR VIGOR, and so have been able to maintain an appearance of youthfulness—a matter of considerable consequence to ministers, orators, actors, and in fact every one who lives in the eyes of the public."

MRS. O. A. PRESCOTT, writing from 18 Elm St., Charlestown, Mass., April 14, 1882, says: "Two years ago about two-thirds of my hair came off. It thinned very rapidly, and I was fast growing bald. On using AYER'S HAIR VIGOR the falling stopped and a new growth commenced, and in about a month my head was completely covered with short hair. It has continued to grow, and is now as good as before it fell. I regularly used but one bottle of the VIGOR, but now use it occasionally as a dressing."

We have hundreds of similar testimonials to the efficacy of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR. It needs but a trial to convince the most skeptical of its value.

TO THE FARMERS

—OF—

Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Counties.

IT is universally acknowledged by the most practical farmers that the

OHIO CHILLED PLOW

—IS THE—

for NEATNESS OF WORK and lightness of draft to the team. As I have ordered a large number of these plows, both two and three-horse, farmers will do well to give me an early call.

We also keep on hand, the old reliable Concave Nos. 9, 10 and 11. Polished Minor & Horton, Wiley Nos. 3 and 4, and Two-Furrowed Plows, Harrows, Twin, Single A, and Double A, Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth unsurpassed by any manufacture. Single, Double, 3 and 4 Horse-Trees and Hames.

As there have been a great many Chilled Plows sold in these counties and as farmers have been put to a great deal of trouble to get Castings for them, if they will only give the name and number of the plow we will endeavor to keep them on hand at my shop sin Galena and Chestertown. I always have on hand Plain and Slip Shares for the Ohio, Oliver, Roland, Advance and Syracuse.

If any of you are in need of anything in my line, please give me a call as I intend to sell low for the cash.

Thankful for past patronage, I solicit a continuance of the same.

WM. A. HYLAND,
GALENA AND CHESTERTOWN.
