resignation
May 6th 1834

Gentlemen

a meeting of the Governor and Council will take place this month when I shal resign my commission as a member of the board of Emigration. I did not deem the circumstance of sufficient importance to require a written note, and I adopt it now only to supply an Omission in my Verbal Communication, it is to Offer you my thanks for the kindness and Courtesy you have Uniformly Observed toward me, and to express the hope that no act of mine has forfeited your good will
