J. H. B. Latrobe, Esq., Sect. of
the Maryland State Colonization Society, Baltimore.

My dear Sir,

You are already informed that the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions have determined to send out this fall to Cape Palmas, West Africa, the Revs. J. Leighton Wilson, who has already visited & explored for them that coast, & his wife, & several male & female colored teachers from this country, to commence & prosecute the mission resolved on by the Committee to the native tribes within & around your infant colony at that cape. Saddress you at this time, by direction of our Committee, to make application, in their name & behalf, to your Board of Managers, for ~~[illegible]~~ a passage to Cape Palmas, for Mr. & Mrs. Wilson, & one colored man & his wife, & one other colored woman & a child of hers about ten years old already engaged as teachers, & another colored man for a similar station - if one can yet be obtained (which is not probable) - in the vessel which, we are informed, your design to despatch to your colony, with emigrants, in the course of the coming October. They will wish also to take with them some freight (besides considerable baggage) - furniture, stores, &c., & materials for a small frame house to be erected for teachers. We shall expect to pay the usual rates for their passage, & for the freight.

We hope this application will receive the favorable regard of your Board, as it is very important that our missionaries should get out this fall & there is no probability of our being able to find any other opportunity, & they will
