shall have some freight to take out - as much, perhaps more than I took out last year.

I received a letter only a few day ago, ~~a letter~~ although it was written some time since from Mr McKinney, & have felt at a loss how to direct a letter to him, having that he has absent from Baltimore.

He wrote (unofficially however) with regard to the coloured emigrants in Savannah who wish to emigrate to africa. The New York Colo. Soc. proposed to take them out, but that Soc. has failed. I supposed that our Soc. cannot take them on state expense; & I see very little possibility of getting the means of sending them unless they are sent with the company who will be supported by the pensylvania. Will you inform me where Mr McKinney is & I will answer the other points in his letter.

I shall expect to hear from you soon. My kind regards Mrs Latrobe

Yours affectionately

Seighton Wilson

P.S. Direct your letter if you please to the care of Mr Alex. Henry.
