SATURDAY MORNING.....May 2, 1885.

GEN. GRANT'S FAITH.

How He Kept It to Gen. Lee and His Officers.

Prof. R. S. McCulloch, of Baton Rouge, La., for some time an associate of Gen. Robt. E. Lee in Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., writes as follows to the New Orleans Times-Democrat:

The present is perhaps the fit moment to make public the following statement. In the year 1867 the undersigned spent an evening with the late John W. Garrett, Esq., then president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, who made to him the following communication:

After the assassination of Mr. Lincoln the cabinet met in the Treasury Department and passed a resolution to arrest and try by military commission the leading men of the Confederacy, beginning with such as Mr. Davis, Gen. R. E. Lee and others; and meaning thereby to strike terror into the hearts of the Southern people, suspicion of complicity in that crime being the ground for such intended trials. They concluded that to carry their resolution into effect, Gen. Grant must give the requisite orders. Tired of war, he was seeking repose on the banks of the Delaware. He was therefore telegraphed to come immediately to Washington, and the railroads were ordered to bring him without delay.

Mr. Garrett was at the moment in Washington, and was instructed by Mr. Stanton to go forthwith to Baltimore, in a single express car, there to meet Gen. Grant and bring him to Washington as quickly as possible. He was also told by Mr. Stanton to inform Gen. Grant of the resolution passed, which he was expected to execute, and that the cabinet would be in permanent session until his arrival. When the message was delivered in the car, Gen. Grant said: "These gentlemen do not reflect that such action would be a stain upon the escutcheon of this nation which could never be wiped out. The assassination seems to have unsettled their wits. Tell me that such men as Gen. Lee and Mr. Davis had anything to do with a murder, gentlemen whom I have known and esteemed for years, and who are incapable of crime. As well suspect myself."

The response was: "Well, General, the cabinet are waiting only for you to give the orders; and you will go into their meeting as soon as you get there. I hope when you do that you will speak to them just as you have now done to me." Then came the noble reply: "I shall go further, Mr. Garrett, I shall tell them they must take my sword from me."

Upon their arrival Gen. Grant went directly into cabinet meeting, and Mr. Garrett remained in the corridor. After some time the Postmaster-General came out. Approaching him, Mr. Garrett said: "I do not wish to pry into that which is confidential or secret, but you know the message with which I was charged. When I delivered it, Gen. Grant said he would tell you gentlemen that you must first take his sword from him." The answer was: "He has done that very thing, Mr. Garrett."

To which the response was: "That is all I wish to know. Please tell Mr. Stanton he will find me at his house when your meeting is over. He told me he desired to see me on railroad business, and I shall go there and talk with Mrs. S. until his return." When Mr. Stanton went home he confirmed what his colleague had said, and gave Mr. Garrett the information that what took place in the cabinet was substantially the equivalent of what had occurred and been said in the car.

When this statement was made to me, in 1867, by Mr. Garrett, I was associated in Washington College, at Lexington, Va., with Gen. R. E. Lee, and upon my return from Baltimore I repeated it to him, remarking that it might be news to him. He admitted that it was, but instantly said: "I can add to it for you." And then he told me that one of his kinsmen, hearing a rumor that military trials and executions were contemplated, and apprehending trouble, went to Washington, and was then making inquiry. Learning which Gen. Grant sent for him, and said: "Please go to Gen. Lee from me, and tell him to have no fears; that the government must respect what the army has done, and that not an officer or private to whom terms of surrender and parole have been conceded shall be disturbed."

It was long hoped by the undersigned that publicity would be given to the above facts by Mr. Garrett himself. But now that his death precludes the possibility of such testimony, they are hereby made known as told to me, and as doubtless they have been also communicated by Mr. Garrett to others if never published before.

THE ordinances fixing Baltimore city taxes at $1 60 have been passed by both branches of the city council.

Chestertown, March 21, 1885.

The Tariff Reduced!

Not anticipating these hard times and scarcity of money, I bought for

THIS SPRING AND SUMMER

a very heavy stock of

MEN AND BOYS'

COARSE AND FINE SHOES,

which MUST BE SOLD, and in order that they may be sold soon I propose to offer them to all cash buyers at a very small margin above first cost.

They are all FRESH and STYLISH GOODS and we only make this offer because we need money.

We have a variety of other goods, such as SUGAR, Coffee, Flour and Molasses; Segars and Tobacco, Powder and Shot, and many other articles, all of which can be bought at a low figure for the money.

This is NO HUMBUG

but we intend to do just what we say.—But in order to be convinced of the truth of this statement, we invite you to call—with the money—and we feel sure that we can satisfy you both in the price and quality of goods.

Remember the place:

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great

Regenerative Medicine

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an

Absolute Cure

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world.
