Other [illegible] have come to my ear of the course his affairs take, that I may inform Repeaters, for it is not right that he should suffer, although I am determined not to give him another opportunity to drone on the Agency. I shall immediately set about making out my semi-annual accounts & a general statement of the position of affairs here, & send them home as soon as possible —

I have still the satisfaction of saying that we have as yet lost no adult from the Pennsylvania & Sterling emigrants, & there are now not an invalid in the Colony —

With sentiments of the highest respect & esteem
I have the honour to be
Yours Truly
