Princeton Oct. 16th 1833

Dear Sir

In my last I gave you a history of my eastern excursion, and forwarded the small pittance of 60 dols. in which was included a collection of nine dols. taken up at Lawrenceville N. Jersey. Inasmuch as I was at no expense for horse hire, or stage fare to that place, I make no charge of service to the society. There then remained due the society forty one cents. On the 23rd July, I addressed the Presbyterian Church at Trenton — and took up by collection $23.78

$62.10

In the evening of same day addressed the Baptists. But there were causes, that rendered it expedient to defer the collection. They promised to give us aid. Aug. 16th addressed the Presbyterian church at Kingston, but without taking up collection. For visiting the above mentioned places, I have made a charge of 3 days services $13.65
