SATURDAY MORNING.....JUNE 6, 1885.

DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

In pursuance of the action taken by the County Executive Committee on the 12th day of May, 1885, the Democratic voters of Kent county will meet at the usual places of voting, in their several election districts, between the hours of 2 and 6 P. M., on Saturday, June 6, for the purpose of conducting the primary election and of selecting five delegates from each election district to meet in convention at the Court House at 11 o'clock A. M. on the following Tuesday to nominate one candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court, one candidate for Register of Wills, one candidate for Sheriff, two candidates for the House of Delegates, five candidates for County Commissioners and one candidate for County Surveyor.

In this connection it is deemed proper to append the following rules and regulations for conducting the primaries:

1st. That the executive committee from each district have power to appoint in their respective districts, three discreet men, who shall act as judges of the nomination, and shall have power to appoint clerks.

2d. That, in voting at the primaries, no one shall be allowed to vote whose name does not appear upon the registration book of the district in which he offers to vote.

3d. That in receiving the votes the judges shall be assured that the party offering to vote is a Democrat.

4th. That it is the sense of this committee that the nominations shall be made by the district plan.

5th. That as explanatory of the district plan the following be taken: Each district shall appoint or elect five delegates, who shall meet in convention at the Court House in Chestertown on Tuesday succeeding the primaries, at 11 o'clock A. M., to nominate and publish the names of candidates for all offices to be filled—provided that each district shall be entitled to one candidate for County Commissioner who shall be voted for only in the district in which he may reside:—provided, further, that all candidates shall be voted for at the time of the appointment or election of delegates. The candidates or candidate having a plurality of the votes in the district shall be entitled to the votes of the delegates from such district in the convention.

W. S. WALKER,
Chairman County Executive Committee.

Letter from Edesville.

Messrs. Editors:—The Methodist Protestant Sabbath-school here had their "Children's Day" last Sabbath. May 17th was generally observed as Children's Day" throughout the Maryland district, but circumstances necessitated a postponement. Teachers and scholars to the full capacity of the scnool were early assembled with flowers in abundance, evergreens, &c., with which to beautify the church for the occasion; beautiful birds in elegant cages were singing in different parts of the room. United effort so succeeded in the decoration feature as would please the most fanciful. The morning was somewhat unfavorable, but cleared up before noon. Seating room could not be found for all when the hour arrived for the extra services. The object for holding this day had been earnestly presented to the school by the pastor, Rev. R. L. Lewis. Program used was that of Rev. J. L. Cowan, editor of Sabbath-school literature of the church, with selections and recitations in addition. Mr. Wm. B. Judefind presided at the organ. At 10.30 the superintendent announced as opening hymn, "Oh! Worship the Lord in the Beauty of Holiness," which was rendered with credit to the school. "Let all the Children Sing," was next used, and surely every child did its part. Prayer by Rev. D. W. Bates, D. D. The following are some of the additions to the regular program. Selection by Miss Mollie Stevens—

O, God! our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come, in her usual successful and easy manner.

Reading the 23d Psalm by Miss Ella Adkinson was befitting and nicely rendered. Class song, by Miss Fannie Wilkins' class it being one of the best in the school, acquitted themselves handsomely. First Psalm, recited by six little boys attracted commendation. Addresses by the Pastor and Dr. Bates. Miss Florence Adkinson with her little red box in hand addressed the scholars and her effort could not be excelled, after which she passed her box around and received for the Yokohama Mission, eleven dollars and fifty cents. Exercises closed by singing doxology and benediction. This school is in a healthly condition with bright promises for the future.

The ladies of the church held their festival Thursday, 4th, and realized in the neighborhood of $100. Candidates were plentiful and liberal toward the cause for which the ladies are thankful. There is no doubt of some considerable repairing being done to the church during this year, we think necessity requires it. Ere another issue of your paper shall have come to your subscribers a great political battle will have been fought and the standard bearers of the democracy named who shall go on to victory in November. HENRY.

Congressman Randall Says the President Will Be the Man for 1888.

"If he goes on as he has gone, in his own way, following his own ideas of his duty to the public, he will be in the end one of the most acceptable Presidents we have ever had. He will, through his success, by the year 1888, as the public administrator of a great trust, be re-nominated and re-elected, and I am satisfied that the party can do no better than faithfully stand by him and co-operate with him. The work of reform confided to him can hardly be completed in a single term. The country will re-elect him to secure the completion of that work and give it the permanence which it ought to have for the general good."

"Do you mean that the true policy for your party is to give the administration a united and cordial support with the distinct object of re-nominating Mr. Cleveland in 1888?"

"That is my view of the political situation. On general principles it must be plain to any one that we can more easily re-elect Mr. Cleveland than elect a new man. Or, to put this in a different shape, if we cannot re-elect Mr. Cleveland, he having accomplished in part or in whole the reforms desired by the people, then we cannot elect anyone. We must cluster around him and his administration, and thus keep out party together, strengthen it, and enable it to meet its opponents in 1888 with a solid front."

"What do you say about the tariff?"

"As to the tariff, the administration should be guided by the spirit and letter of the utterances of our platform on this subject, and a faithful execution of those declarations, without cavil, will unite our party everywhere and accomplish the tariff reform which both platforms asserted to be necessary. Changes occur in the conditions existing in our country and the countries with which we exchange productions more rapidly than is supposed. These changes must be provided for through modifications in our tariff laws, and the best time to make these alterations is immediately following the information and results shown by our system of census returns."—N. Y. Herald Interview.

Pay What You Owe.

The Baltimore Bulletin very wisely suggests that in times when business is so depressed that all who are engaged in trade wear gloomy countenances and uneasy minds; when men catch at straws and live for today hoping the morrow may bring forth some relief, it is the duty of the people to do all they can to restore confidence and to encourage and assist the credit of the community. Banks should not make matters worse by refusing credit to depositors who can present fair endorsements. We do not mean to say that banks or individuals should recklessly throw their money away; but we do say that banking institutions are incorporated for public accommodation, and that instead of adding to the distress of hard times and increasing the trouble of the community, that in times like the present they should not lock up the money they have in their vaults, where it can do no good; but should let it out when equally good security is offered as they accept in more prosperous times. Banks should help the people, and men who have money should pay their debts. Every dollar kept in circulation benefits the whole community, and every dollar hoarded helps to pull down the business of the community and ruin the man of small means. Men thoughtlessly take advantage of hard times to put off paying their debts. The duty of every honest man is to pay (if he has it) more promptly when there is a dearth of money than at any other time. The business community will admit that money is hard to collect and that times are "tighter" than since 1877. Much of this depression in trade and scarcity of money would be obviated if people would try to pay their debts.

The case of Anthony Reybold vs. the Delaware City, Salem and Philadelphia Steamboat Company was decided in the Supreme Court at Wilmington, Del., last Saturday, Mr. Reybold securing a verdict for $3,179.81, the full amount claimed with interest.

Col. A. Loudon Snowden, superintendent of the Philadelphia mint, has forwarded his resignation to President Cleveland, to take effect June 30.

Kent County Agricultural Association.

CLUB ROOM, June 1, 1885.

Messrs. Editors:—The Kent County Agricultural Society was called to order at 2.30 P. M. by the vice-president, (the president being absent), after a recess of a few weeks. Very little of importance was done. The resolutions published in your last issue were introduced and the first, relating to the use of liquor in harvest time, after considerable discussion was laid on the table, and the other two were laid on the table as soon as presented. After the society had transacted some other business a motion was made to take the resolutions from the table, but the president ruled it out of order. An appeal was taken from his decision and the ruling was sustained by the association.

Member asked about planting potatoes: "If potatoes raised this year were planted again this season what would be the result? and if this last crop were to be planted next year would the crop be earlier or later than the crop planted with the seed from the first crop?" Another answered that he had known it tried once and that each crop was good, and the crop from the last crop's seed was ten days or two weeks earlier than the crop grown from the first seed.

Another member asked about saving seed from Lucerne clover: "If they should be saved from the first crop or the last?" A member answered from the last.

Our time was pricipally taken up with routine business and the regular subject was postponed until next meeting. I am at a loss to name the subject as it is written, but it is something about farmers receiving a collegiate education. But let everybody come out and learn something about it. X.

The Temperance Question.

Messrs. Editors:—In the NEWS of May 30th there is a communication from "Fair Play" which so grossly misrepresented the action of the temperance people of Kent, and which is so devoid of truth that a short reply, simply giving at this time a plain statement of facts, seems to be demanded, lest the good people of our county be deceived by one who is not of us nor with us, nor has he ever been so far as we have had opportunity to judge any advantage to us. In his communication he says, "The Kent County Temperance Alliance met on Tuesday, the 14th instant, at Chestertown, and dissolved the Alliance. I do not think the temperance people of Kent will endorse any such action. If such a course had been contemplated why not let the public know, so that the temperance men of the county could have been more fully represented." Now, we will give the writer credit for stating the truth once in his said letter, in that he said the County Alliance was dissolved and a County League was formed; but the assertion that no prior notice of such intention was given we denounce untrue, and leave it with the people to say whether we are not justified in so doing, and also to judge whether or not the false statements made by "Fair Play" were not made to practice gross deception, after perusal of the notice which was given in the NEWS of May 9, as follows: "Public notice.—A Temperance Convention for the promotion of the cause will be held in Chestertown, on Tuesday, May 14, at 10 o'clock A. M., in the Temperance Hall over Howard's harness store. The County Alliance having separated from the State Alliance last fall, the propriety of dissolving the County Alliance and organising a County League, independent and on a strictly non-partisan basis will be fully discussed. A general attendance of all favorable to temperance is earnestly requested." In addition to the above notice letters were addressed to persons in different parts of the county setting forth the object of the meeting. True no such letter was sent to "Fair Play" for it was desirable to have the meeting harmonious.

Again, he says, "If their favorite, Mr. Blaine, had been elected president this action of the 14th would have never been heard of." Another assertion made by him with as little regard to truth as was the former.

Again, he says: "The State Alliance assisted us in Kent in the campaign for local option." This is also false, as all know who took part in that campaign that we refused to unite with the State Temperance Alliance at that time because we considered it partisan, and as a State Alliance no favor was asked of it by us.

What part did "Fair Play" take in securing local option for Kent? What interest had he in Kent then, and what now? And what does he know what the temperance people of Kent county will endorse? What had he ever done for temperance at any time except to vote for St. John and Daniel? What has he ever contributed here or elsewhere to sustain it? And why should he place himself upon the wall as a watchman, pretending to be friendly and waiting and watching an opportunity to sow seeds of discord and contention. PLAY FAIR.

Temperance Meeting.

At a meeting of the Kent County Temperance League, held in Chestertown, May 28, 1885, the League was called to order by Brother Baker, who was in the chair. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. D. Kemp. The report of committee on constitution and by-laws as amended was adopted. The League then elected the following permanent officers to serve for the ensuing year: Rev. Chas. H. Baker, pres't; Edw. P. Janvier, vice-president; Wilbur Eliason, sec'y; Chas. S. York, treas'r. District vice-presidents: 1st district, Sam'l W. Aldridge; 2d, John Hurlock; 3d, Thos. J. Willis; 4th, John Bordley; 5th, Columbus A. Leary; and the president and vice-presidents to constitute an executive committee. On motion, Bros. Kemp, Bates, York, Bordley, Hurlock, Janvier, Baker and Eliason were elected as delegates to the State League Convention to be held June 2d, at Baltimore. On motion Brother Kemp was requested to formulate his ideas upon District Leagues and present them at the next meeting. After very appropriate remarks by Brothers Kemp and Janvier upon the work of the League, the League adjourned to meet on June 11, 1885, at 10 P. M., at same place.

HALL'S Vegetable Sicilian HAIR RENEWER was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure diseases of the scalp, and the first successful restorer of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needful for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.

Joanna Robinson,
vs.
Isaiah Robinson, George Ingram and Mary E. Ingram.

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain real estate in Kent county.

The Bill states that the plaintiff, Joanna Robinson, together with Isaiah Robinson and Mary E. Ingram, the wife of George Ingram, are seized in fee in equal portions of an undivided tract of land containing about twenty-four and one-half acres lying in the First Election District of Kent county.

That the said real estate is not susceptible of partition amongst the parties entitled, without loss and injury to them, and that plaintiff is entitled to have the same sold and the proceeds divided amongst the parties entitled, and that all the defendants are non-residents of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon ordered this 14th day of May, 1885, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 15th day of June, 1885, give notice to the said Isaiah Robinson, George Ingram and Mary E. Ingram of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by attorney on or before the 15th day of September, 1885, to show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
