Adm'rs.

Wonderful, but True!
"Halloo! John. Where are you going so early in the morning?"
"I am going to Frierson, the Clothier under the Kent News office to get a suit."

"Why don't you go to Baltimore to get it?"
"Well, you know, Tom, I have seen the suits which John and George have just bought at Frierson's, under the Kent News office, and I tell you they are just as good in style and in workmanship as the Baltimore clothiers."

"Yes, sir," said Frierson, "I have seen all the pieces in prices."
"How is that, John?" How can Frierson, in Chestertown, sell cheaper than Baltimore houses?"

"I tell you, Tom, the reason is he buys his goods for cash, direct from the manufacturers, and under small expense; besides, you know the cash goes there days a great way, and I tell you, you can have your goods in less than a week. He is reliable and straightforward, his stock is don't misrepresent any goods. His stock is a large stock of all the latest fashions, hats and caps. I advise all my friends to go direct to A. FRIERSON, under the Kent News office, Chestertown, to save money."
