SATURDAY MORNING..........JULY 18, 1885.

Andrew Jackson's Tenderness.

"People have little idea of the tenderness of President Jackson's heart," said General Brinkerhoff. "Even on his deathbed, when his body was racked with pains of fast-approaching dissolution, his kindness of heart was shown in nearly every act, one of his daughter's stories well illustrating this. Mrs. Jackson, jr,, had some rare and tropical plants which she prized very highly and tended with a great deal of care. But a few days before he died, when he knew his end was near, General Jackson called his adopted son Andrew to his bedside, and pointing to the plants which were standing on the front veranda said: 'Andrew, I can't live but a few days, and when my funeral takes place there will doubtless be a great many people here. Unless you take some way to protect those plants they will be broken off or destroyed or taken away. Now Sarah is very proud of them, and I think that when the times comes you should have those plants carried to the upper veranda and locks the windows and then they will be safe."

"He died a few days afterwerd. His directons in this respect were not observed, and Mrs. Jackson's plants were destroyed or carried away in pieces or as a whole, as mementos of the occasion."

He Didn't Get Excited.

A stranger sat in the corner of the car going to New York, in an easy attitude, his feet upon a large black trunk. The gentlemanly conductor, going his rounds at the first station politely informed the stranger that that was no place for a trunk, it must be put in a baggage car.

To which the stranger nothing replied. At the second station the displeased conductor more decidedly told the stranger that he must put the trunk in the baggage car.

The stranger seemed perfectly indifferent. At the third station the vexed conductor more imperatively told the stranger that he must put the trunk in the baggage car, or it would be put off the train.

The stranger kept perfectly quiet,

At the fourth station the irate conductor had the trunk put off and left.

At the fifth station the mollified conductor, addressing the stranger, begged him to remember that he had but done what his duty required, and that he had done it only after repeated warnings, and that it was solely the stranger's fault.

To which the stranger laconically replied:

"I don't care a button, 'taint my trunk."

How To Protect the Cows.

If the farmer will wend his way to the store and procure three yards of factory cotton for each of his cows, and have it cut to fit the back so as to form a well-fitting sheet which can be fastened around the neck and drawn close under the belly, but leaving the udder free, he will enjoy blessed peace when he milks the cows. And the cow will have equal peace in their safety from the persistent flies which so annoy them at milking time. There will be no violent throwing back of the head, no switching of the tail and no kicking to arouse the wrath of the milker and tempt him to use bad words and the milking-stool to relieve his feelings.

Hyacinth Webster.

Jim Webster was recently blessed with a son. His wife determined that the son and heir should have a high-sounding name, and selected a very beautiful one. When the child was presented to the clergyman for baptism the latter said:

"Name this infant."

Jim scratched his head for a while, and finally said:

"Squash."

"Dat's no proper name for a Christian child."

"Sunflower, den."

Once more the clergyman shook his head incredulously. Jim Webster leaned over and whispered to his wife to give the right name.

"Hyacinth," she replied.

"Well, I knowed it was some kinder garden truck."—Texas Siftings.

Not that Sort of Conversion.

The most lamentable typographical error on record has been made by the Honea (Ga.) Path Plaindealer. Its Atlanta correspondent wrote that the Rev. Sam Jones had converted 2,500 and the Rev. Dr. Munhall 1,000, intending to have the "persons" understood after each set of figures. The intelligent compositor dropped a couple of dollar-marks he had no special use for in the vacant places, however, and caused the statement to appear that the Rev. Sam Jones had converted "$2,500," and the Rev. Mr. Munhall "$1,000."

SKATING MADE A GLOOMY FACE.—"Has Stroble been joining the church?"

"No; what made you think so?"

"Why, I notice that he looks as gloomy here lately as a boarding-house gas-jet, and I don't know how else to account for it."

"Pshaw! That's only because his wife can skate, and"——

"And what?"

"He can't."

"AND so you have received a divorce from that vagabond husband of yours, Mrs. Smith?" "Yes, I am glad to say that I have." "Didn't you feel quite overpowered when you heard the decision of the Judge?" "Not exactly. I felt sort of unmanned, so to speak."

KING'S EVIL

Was the name formerly given to Scrofula because of a superstition that it could be cured by a king's touch. The world is wiser now, and knows that can only be cured by a thorough purification of the blood. If this is neglected, the disease perpetuates its taint through generation after generation. Among its earlier symptomatic developments are Eczema, Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Erysipelas, Purulent Ulcers, Nervous and Physical Collapse, etc. If allowed to continue, Rheumatism, Scrofulous Catarrh, Kidney and Liver Diseases, Tubercular Consumption, and various other dangerous or fatal maladies, are produced by it.

SCROFULA

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Is the only powerful and always reliable blood-purifying medicine. It is so effectual an alterative that it eradicates from the system Hereditary Scrofula, and the kindred poisons of contagious diseases and mercury. At the same time it enriches and vitalizes the blood, restoring healthful action to the vital organs and rejuvenating the entire system. This great

Regenerative Medicine

Is composed of the genuine Honduras Sarsaparilla, with Yellow Dock, Stillingia, the Iodides of Potassium and Iron, and other ingredients of great potency, carefully and scientifically compounded. Its formula is generally known to the medical profession, and the best physicians constantly prescribe AYER'S SARSAPARILLA as an Absolute Cure

For all diseases caused by the vitiation of the blood. It is concentrated to the highest practicable degree, far beyond any other preparation for which like effects are claimed, and is therefore the cheapest, as well as the best blood purifying medicine, in the world.

It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.

It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives.

It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—other Iron medicines do.

It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, aids the assimilation of food, relieves Heartburn and Belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.
