Boston Nov. 21. 1835.

Rev. & Dear Sir,

Mr. Latrobe has informed Mr. Anderson that a vessel was expected to sail for Cape Palmas from your port early next month. We are desirous to send to our missionary there, Rev. John L. Wilson, some Spanish dollars and supplies, to the amount, in all, of about eight hundred dollars.

Mr. Wilson has sent us a list of articles, but without stating which he needed most. I should be very much obliged if you would hand this over to some merchant, with a request that he will exercise his judgment as to what articles to send, and what proportion of the $800 should be in specie. Some persons connected with the Maryland Colonization Society might advise in the matter. If some one would attend to this business and charge for his services and draw on me at sight for the amount, I should be greatly obliged. I take the liberty to address this to you because I do not know of any way in which we
