Wednesday Night
Nov. 25. 1835.

Dear Sir,

I returned from Hartford County last Friday evening - One man only, of the seven persons that had been offered their freedom by Mr. Davis, will be ready to embark for the colony this fall. - I leave the City to morrow morning for Caroline & Queen Anns County for the purpose of getting the Emigrants there in readiness to be in the City by the 10th of December. - Finding on my return from Hartford that no vessel had been chartered by the Society, I deemed it best to advise the Emigrants (through their friends) by letter that the contemplated expedition would not sail before the 10th proximo. Was informed to day by the Executive
