Georgetown, Feby. 2d. 1836.

Dear Bro:—

The question you propose, I am not well prepared to answer. My feelings, in regard to the office you describe, would greatly depend upon the circumstances existing at the time of election. Now, both attractions and objections are apparent.—

This, however, is a matter of but little importance. I will state a difficulty, therefore, which is of more moment. It is desirable that the Agt. should "enter upon its duties early in the Spring—say Apl." In all probability, Congress will remain in session until July or August, so that, should Providence spare me, I shall be compelled to remain here some months after the time you specify. Is not this an insurmountable difficulty?

I am obliged to you for the interest which prompted your communication.

And remain
Yrs. Respectfully & Affy
Thos. H. Stockton
