Strange Developments in the Maxwell Case.

The case of W. H. L. Maxwell, now in jail in St. Louis on the charge of murdering C. A. Preller, is prolific of strange developments. On Monday Maxwell received a letter from a man in New Orleans, signing himself Louis Daubigny, who intimates that Preller was alive at the time the corpse supposed to be his was discovered. A dispatch from St. Louis adds: "There is other testimony to prove that Preller is alive. A well-known St. Louis drummer says that a few days after the body was found in the Southern Hotel a young man answering the description of Preller appeared at the town of Ellston, Mo., organized a singing class, remained a month and then left without collecting his tuition. Before he left he gave a high hat to a colored man, which has the initals 'C. A. P.' inside of the sweat band. Preller was something of a musician and vocalist, and this and the high hat evidence go to prove that he is the man who entered and left Ellston so mysteriously. It is believed by many that the reason Maxwell has exhibited such exceptional coolness is that he knows that at the right time he can prove that Preller is alive."

A dispatch states that Dr. E. H. Graham Dewey, of that city, says that Maxwell when in Boston, asked him to get him a human body, but gave no hint why he wanted it. The doctor told him that it was impossible to get one. Maxwell then left town for a few weeks, and on his return surprised the doctor on the street one day by saying that he had got a body, and wished him to come to his room and inspect it. Dr. Dewey says that he did not accept the invitation, but in view of the developments in St. Louis, he now wishes that he had done so. The invitation to see the body was given only two or three days prior to Maxwell's departure for the West.

POISONED BY EATING WILD CHERRIES.—On last Saturday evening two children of Mr George Kennedy, living near Broad creek, were poisoned from eating wild cherries. Upon the younger one of the two, a little girl aged about five years, the cherries acted as a strong narcotic, and for a time it was impossible to arouse her. It was thought she could not recover, but she finally revived, and on Sunday morning she was comparatively well. The elder one was not so much affected. It is not generally supposed that wild cherries are poisonous, and in moderate quantities they certainly are not, but these children probably ate half a pint or more.—Belair (Md.) Ægis.

HORSE DOWN A WELL.—A fine, young horse belonging to Mr. John T. Rutter, residing on the Jas. T. Earle farm, fell down one of the wells used for watering stock last Saturday during the storm, and was not discovered until 10 o'clock Sunday morning. The horse was rescued about noon Sunday, apparently uninjured. The well was about 20 feet deep, and the water therein from five to six feet deep. The horse when discovered was sitting on his haunches with head and about half his neck out of the water.—Centreville Observer.

THE Wicomico Record states that the New York, Philadelphia & Norfolk Railroad Company has commenced to run cars through to New Orleans and Florida without change. This is done by transferring the cars by means of adjustable bridges to boats of the company at Cape Charles City. Several experiments have been made with the bridges, and the cars were transported to Portsmouth and Norfolk, where connection is made with other roads without trouble.

NOVEL WAY OF COMMITTING SUICIDE.—A well-dressed stranger was discovered in a yard on Diamond street, Flatbush, on Monday, attempting to kill himself in a novel manner. He was throwing large stones into the air and placing himself in such a position that they would fall on his head. He had succeeded in wounding himself severely before policemen removed him to the Flatbush Hospital.

THE Princess Anne Marylander says that the fruit raisers have actually stopped shipping peaches to the New York and Philadelphia markets, for the sole reason that the railroad cannot, or rather will not, deliver the peaches in either market in time to be sold the day that they are due. The heaviest shippers are sending their peaches by boat to Baltimore or selling them to the canning factory in town.

MR. CHAS. A. GAMBRILL, head of the firm of Gambrill, Sons & Co., owners of the Druid Cotton Mills at Woodberry, Baltimore county, died suddenly last Sunday night at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, of acute Bright's disease of the kidneys. He was in the 48th year of his age.

A LARGE PERSONAL ESTATE.—The inventory of the personal estate of the late Mrs. Isabella Brown, widow of the late George Brown, and mother of Gen. George S Brown and Alexander D. Brown, Baltimore bankers, fixes the value of the personal property at $823,648.91.

JOSEPH HYDE, a well-known bridge-builder and contractor, was badly injured, and probably fatally, Monday afternoon, at Wilmington, by falling down a stairway at the foundry of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company.

REV. THOMAS SHERLOCK, a Methodist minister, of Lock Haven, Pa., while walking along the beach promenade at Ocean Grove, N. J., Tuesday morning, was seized with a hemmorrhage, and died shortly after.

THE Presiding Elder question is in statu quo. The first of the coming month or thereabouts will bring some settlement of the anxious question as to who will be the man.—Smyrna Times.

GEO. P. JACKSON, a leading farmer and granger of Cecil county, residing about three miles from Elkton, died Monday morning, of typhoid fever. He was about 45 years of age, and unmarried.

GEO. W. ARUNDEL, commissioner in lunacy, appointed by the Philadelphia court in the case of John McCullough, reports that the tragedien is hopelessly insane, and his death only a question of a few months.

EX-GOVERNOR REUBEN E. FENTON, of New York, died suddenly Tuesday afternoon while at his desk in the National Bank of Jamestown, of which he was president.

JAMES B. TARMAN has been appointed postal agent on the Queen Anne's and Kent railroad, vice Capt. Jas. E. Walters.

ARTHUR DENNIS, appointed to the Naval Academy from the first Maryland district, is found to be ineligible on account of age.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Aug. 25.—Present Judges Walker, Hyland and Stevens.
Emily D. Stradley, executrix of B. W. Stradley, filed her first adm. acc't.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows:
WHEAT—Longberry $95@$98.; Fultz, $.91@93 for fair to good. CORN—White, prime, 54@56; yellow, 53@56. OATS—36.
