SATURDAY MORNING.....Sept. 5, 1885.

A Fashionable Newport Marriage.

The marriage at Newport, R. I., Tuesday of last week, of Miss Alice Coates, daughter of Mr. Jas. Coates, of Providence, of the firm of J. & P. Coates, of Scotland, to Mr. Theodore Frelinghuysen, son of the late ex-Secretary of State, was the most distinguished event of the season. The wedding ceremony took place at the Carey Villa, occupied by the bride's parents. The floral display was very fine, every portion of the house being beautifully decorated. Passing by the apartments on the first floor of the cottage, which were decorated throughout in the most artistic way with plants and flowers, the guests traversed the long hall, turned to the right through the Louis XIV parlor, and came upon a chief d'œuvre in the florist's art. Opposite the doorway, curtained by grapevines, was a large bay-window, screened and domed by large palms and tropical plants, forming a dark, rich background for the pink and white floral chime of bells suspended from a deep fringe of pink and white sweet peas. For bell ropes were substituted pink and white satin ribbons, looped back, the whole being flanked by arching palms, banked in fancy foliage plants.

Around the large paintings were floral pieces. Below, in every nook and corner, were costly plants, while the mantel and mirror were resplendent with areca lutescens, over which trailed the golden palm gloxinias and passiflora princeps in graceful festoons. Without clumps of palms made a grateful shade.

Among the guests were ex-President Arthur, Judge and Mrs. Davis, nee Frelinghuysen, Miss Lucy Frelinghuysen, Hon. George Bancroft, and a great many other distinguished relatives and friends. The wedding presents were not shown, but it is known that they included diamonds from Mr. and Mrs. Coates and the bridegroom, a magnificent lot of silverware and bric-a-brac of every description. The bride also received from her father a check for a large amount.

The bride's dress was of silk muslin, cut low in the neck and profusely covered with Valenciennes lace. Mr. Frelinghuysen's best man was his brother, Frederick Frelinghuysen, while the ushers were Hugh D. Auchincloss, of New York, and Pennington Whitehead, of Newark, N. J. The couple were married by the Rev. Thatcher Thayer, an ex-pastor of the United Congregational Church. They sailed for Scotland one day last week and pass the honeymoon on Sir Peter Coates' estate.

THE SPORTING SEASON.—This has been a remarkable summer in sporting circles. On the turf, there has not been for many years so exciting an event as the races between Miss Woodford and Freeland—the East against the West. It carries many an old sportsman back to the time of his youth. The merits of the two racers are not settled yet, for each has beaten the other and only by a nose or a neck. In trotting, Maud S. has lowered her remarkable record and her owner expects her to do even better this autumn. On the water, the America's cup is to be sailed for, and the English yachts Genesta and Galatea are ready for the contests that are presently to come off. Of the American yachts, the Puritan has beaten the Priscilla twice and the Priscilla came in ahead of her rival once. America has held the cup ever since the time when we beat in British waters the best English yachts of that day. There is probably more danger of losing it in the coming race than ever before, for it is conceded that with the Genesta, or perhaps the Galatea, our English opponents are fully able to test the qualities of our best yachts and the ability of our best yachtsmen.—Balt. Sun.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND is credited with the declaration that he was elected for other business than helping to win a political campaign in Ohio or any other State. If the President sticks to this view of the matter there may not be so much fun in political campaigns as there used to be when Presidents went swinging around the circle, but the public business is certain to be better performed. Presidents were not originally intended by the Constitution of the United States to be winners of other people's political battles. If President Cleveland succeeds in bringing the presidency back to its original significance he will have done a work that should immortalize any man.—Phila. Times.

A POTATO TRAIN passes over the Delaware railroad every night. It carries nothing but potatoes, which come from the New York and Norfolk Railroad. The cars are large, being built especially for this traffic. Tuesday night the train was late, as the engine could hardly pull her load of thirty cars. The average is about twenty-five cars nightly.

HARRY GARFIELD, eldest son of the martyred president, will take a professorship in St. Paul's School at Concord, N. H. His brother James will study law in New York city.

THE New York World and other leading journals predict that the coming revival of manufactures and trade will exceed anything witnessed in that line since the war.

THE President is said to keep a scrap-book in which newspaper comments upon his administration are carefully pasted without regard to the nature of such opinions.

The last number of the Baltimorean contains an excellent portrait and a biographical sketch of Hon. Ephraim King Wilson, U. S. Senator from Maryland.

MR. JESSE R. GRANT, son of Gen. Grant, has sailed for Europe, to enter the service of an American railroad enterprise in Turkey.

IT is rumored that political enemies of Rev. Henry Ward Beecher are seeking to force his retirement from Plymouth Church.

WEST POINT will next year graduate the largest class in its history—83 members.

A MARVELOUS STORY
TOLD IN TWO LETTERS.
FROM THE SON: "28 Cedar St., New York, Oct. 28, 1882.
"Gentlemen: My father resides at Glover, Vt. He has been a great sufferer from Scrofula, and the inclosed letter will tell you what a marvelous effect has had in his case. I think his blood must have contained the humor for at least ten years; but it did not show, except in the form of a scrofulous sore on the wrist, until about five years ago. From a few spots which appeared at that time, it gradually spread so as to cover his entire body. I assure you he was terribly afflicted, and an object of pity, when he began using your medicine. Now, there are few men of his age who enjoy as good health as he has. I could easily name fifty persons who would testify to the facts in his case.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
Yours truly, W. M. PHILLIPS."
FROM THE FATHER: "It is both a pleasure and a duty for me to state to you the benefit I have derived from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.
Six months ago I was completely covered with a terrible humor and scrofulous sores. The humor caused an incessant and intolerable itching, and the skin cracked so as to cause the blood to flow in many places whenever I moved. My sufferings were great, and my life a burden. I commenced the use of the SARSAPARILLA in April last, and have used it regularly since that time. My condition began to improve at once. The sores have all healed, and I feel perfectly well in every respect—being now able to do a good day's work, although 73 years of age. Many inquire what has wrought such a cure in my case, and I tell them, as I have here tried to tell you, AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Glover, Vt., Oct. 21, 1882. Yours gratefully,
HIRAM PHILLIPS."
AYER'S SARSAPARILLA cures Scrofula and all Scrofulous Complaints, Erysipelas, Eczema, Ringworm, Blotches, Sores, Boils, Tumors, and Eruptions of the Skin. It clears the blood of all impurities, aids digestion, stimulates the action of the bowels, and thus restores vitality and strengthens the whole system.
