Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING............OCT. 17, 1885.

Mass-Meetings in Kent.

Attention is called to the Democratic mass-meetings announced in another column. Able speakers will be present at each. Among others Senator Gorman is announced to attend the one in Chestertown next Thursday. Come out, Democrats!

The Republican Campaign.

The following dates have been set for Republican county mass-meetings: Princess Anne, Oct. 19; Cambridge, Oct. 20; Salisbury, Oct. 21; Snow Hill, Oct. 22; Chestertown, Oct. 23; Easton, Oct. 24; St. Michaels, Oct. 24.

Straddled and Won.

Governor Hoadly placed himself squarely upon a whiskey platform before the Ohio people and lost the election by something over twenty thousand. Foraker straddled the question and won!

That Enumeration Fraud.

The total number of voters in Queen Anne's foot up 4545 — white 2982; colored 1563. Of this total the Record says about 2875 will cast a solid Democratic vote in November. The total registration in Kent is 4702, and yet we have but two members of the House of Delegates while Queen Anne's has three. Nothing more is needed to prove, what we have always contended, that Kent was grossly defrauded in the census enumeration of 1880.

A Native of Kent.

Mr. Hodges, the Democratic candidate for mayor of Baltimore, is a native of this county. He was born at the old homestead on Chester river near Rock Hall, now owned and occupied by Mr. W. J. Porter, and still called by many persons "Hodges' Point." The Democracy of Kent, without an exception that we know of, heartily wish him success in his present fight with the Republicans and Mugwumps.

A Little Specimen.

The great independent mass meeting in Baltimore last week which nominated Judge Brown for mayor against Mr. Hodges, the regular Democratic nominee, also appointed a committee to make other nominations. Gen. Felix Agnus, editor of the American, and W. J. Hooper, owner of the Herald, the two leading Republican dailies, are specimen members of that committee.

"THE TIMES" is the title of a new evening daily published in Baltimore. It is bright and newsy and so entertainingly made up that we know a master hand is at the helm. It is also Democratic — regular Democratic without Mugwumpian proclivities, and because it is so ought to receive the hearty support of Democrats. If we may judge from the initial numbers on our table it will be a power for good in the Monumental City. May it prosper abundantly.

DEMOCRATS, remember that upon the success of your party this fall depends a Governor, a Treasurer, Comptroller, Clerk of the Court of Appeals, two Police Commissioners for Baltimore, and a United States Senator. By lukewarmness, or by complimentary votes to Republican candidates, you may turn the county and State over to the Republican party, and may continue the United States Senate under Republican control.

THE projectors of the Maryland and Delaware Ship Canal made another move forward Saturday in securing the appointment of five commissioners at Wilmington to condemn certain lands in Delaware through which the proposed ship canal is to pass. The Sassafras route has been selected, and the estimated construction of the canal, seventeen miles, is placed at $8,458,799. It is announced that the canal will be constructed by a syndicate of Baltimore, New York and Philadelphia capitalists, and that enough of the stock has been sold to warrant the commencement of work. The terminal points of the canal, if the project is carried out, will be the mouth of the Sassafras river, in Chesapeake Bay, and near Liston's Point, in the Delaware, and its dimensions will be as follows: 100 feet wide, 26 feet at low water, side slopes 1½ to 1 foot, with berme on one side 12 feet wide and 30 feet above bottom. The cost of excavations to low water is estimated at $4,039,470.

The Campaign in Baltimore.

The Democrats of Baltimore opened their campaign on Tuesday evening with a ratification mass-meeting at the Concordia Opera House, which was so large that an immense overflow-meeting was held outside. The doors of the Concordia were opened at seven o'clock, and in fifteen minutes, says the Sun, nearly every seat was occupied, and by 7.30 the house was densely packed. After that the multitude disposed of themselves as best they could, but it was apparent that they could have filled a place several times larger than the Concordia. The enthusiasm was unbounded, and this manifested itself early in the evening when the band of music played "Maryland, My Maryland," "Dixie," "Bonnie Blue Flag" and other similar airs. The people took up the choruses and sang them, and shout after shout went up. This feature of the meeting was unexpected and spontaneous, and the band entered into the spirit of the occasion. Mr. John E. Hurst, one of Baltimore's solid business men, presided, and made an excellent common-sense speech. Stirring addresses were also made by Mr. Jas. Hodges, candidate for mayor, and by Messrs. Bernard Carter, Isidor Rayner, Lewis N. Hopkins and others. The Democrats of Baltimore evidently mean business, and although the fusion movement there seemingly presents formidable proportions, we predict the election of the regular ticket by an overwhelming majority.

GENERAL JOHN A. LOGAN was tendered a banquet at the Eutaw House in Baltimore Thursday night week by the Logan Invincibles of Maryland. Stephen B. Elkins came with the general, and John L. Thomas, Hart B. Holton and other distinguished republicans were present. After the cloth had been removed General Logan made a rattling speech in which he took occasion to raise aloft the bloody-shirt.

THE RESIGNATION OF THE MARSHAL OF POLICE, by reason of his being a candidate for an office to be filled at the approaching election, is an incident which supplies a noteworthy proof, if proof be needed, that the reputation for fairness gained by the city in its recent political contests will suffer no detriment on his account. Marshal Gray, in view of his candidacy, requested a leave of absence till November 5, but the board of police commissioners having concluded that No. 21 of their rules necessitated the marshal's resignation, it was tendered and accepted. It is scarcely necessary to say that Marshal Gray has proven himself to be an efficient officer, and his resignation under the circumstances discloses a commendable willingness on his part to omit nothing that may be considered essential, so far as he is concerned, to secure a true result of the election. The promotion of Deputy Marshal Frey to the place of the retiring marshal, and of Capt. Lannan to the position of deputy marshal, will be generally recognized as the deserved advancement of excellent officers, and an assurance that the police organization will lose none of its efficiency.—Baltimore Sun.

UPWARDS of 50,000 people gathered at a respectful distance of Hell Gate, New York harbor on Saturday last to witness the bursting of the rocks of that bar. There had been 130 tons of dynamite placed under the rocks, and at precisely 11.13 o'clock the earth trembled and the bosom of the river was pierced with a mighty unheaval of rocks and timbers. Up, up, up went the glittering masses of water till it seemed as if they would never stop. At a height of 200 feet the uplifted waters paused in their upward flight and fell back again to the river. At this moment when the air for hundreds of feet in each direction was filled with the white masses of sparkling water the spectacle was grand beyond expression.

"JOSH BILLINGS," the renowned humorist, died suddenly in California last Wednesday.

The Time for Dredging.

We understand there is some misapprehension concerning the time for the dredging season to commence, some claiming that dredging is allowable on and after the 15th of October. Under the Act of 1884, chapter 518, the dredging season commences on the first day of November and ends on the 1st day of April. The following is section 3 of that Act, providing—

"That the comptroller of the treasury shall, upon application of any person who has been a resident of this State for twelve consecutive months next preceding such application, and to no other person, issue a license to such resident to employ such boat in catching or taking oysters with scoop, dredge or similar instrument within the waters of Chesapeake bay, Potomac river and in Eastern bay, outside of a line drawn from the southwest corner of second Kent point to Wade's point; provided that nothing herein contained shall authorize the catching or taking of oysters with scoop, dredge or similar instrument on any oyster bar within one and a-half miles of Talley's point, Sandy point, Hackett's point, Thomas' point, Holland Island bar, Three Sisters, Swan Point bar, Poplar Island, one quarter of a mile west of and between the island and the main land; nor within a half mile of Plum point, or with the boundary lines of any county, unless herein otherwise specified, and to carry, buy and sell oysters in said vessel, which license shall hold good for one season only, and shall only authorize the catching of oysters between the first day of November and the first day of April, on which day the dredging season shall end and the license expire."

MR. HODGES used to be recognised and lauded to the skies as a model reformer by those very same Baltimore "independents" who now abuse him. Mr. Hodges says he has not changed, and his nearest friends say he has not changed. Wherefore then the opposition to him? The only real objection we can imagine is—HE IS NOW A DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE. Should this be a ground of offence to Democrats?

HON. CHARLES H. GIBSON, member of Congress, had a narrow escape from a serious accident on Friday night of last week. By a collision on the Delaware railroad the car in which he was seated was turned over and his right foot and leg were hurt, but not seriously.

THE election for State officers in Ohio came off on Tuesday. The returns indicate the election of Judge Foraker, the republican candidate for Governor and also a republican legislature on joint ballot. This result insures the return of John Sherman to the Senate.

ANNE ARUNDEL republicans propose to nominate a straightout ticket. There is too much democracy for them in the fusion ticket as fixed up by M. Bannon & Co.

CARDINAL MCCLOSKEY died at his residence in New York on Friday night of last week. His funeral took place on Thursday and as an ecclesiastical spectacle it was probably unparalleled in that city.

LOCAL OPTION IN CECIL.—The report of the Cecil county grand jury at the recent session of the Circuit Court declares that "after the examination of a large number of witnesses at a heavy expense to the county without satisfactory results," the jury finds it "impossible to enforce the local option law as it now stands." Rev. L. E. Barrett, of Port Deposit, recently of Still Pond, severely criticised this report in last Sunday's sermon. He contended that the failure of the grand jury to enforce the law is no ground for its abandonment; that the law is a good one and must be enforced. The local option law was passed by the Legislature in 1880 and adopted by an overwhelming majority of the popular vote of Cecil county. Notwithstanding several convictions under it, the sale of intoxicants has gone on steadily.

In Memory of Bishop Lay.

Bishop Henry C. Potter, of New York, at the recent session of the diocesan convention spoke as follows of Bishop Lay: "The Bishop of Easton has finished his missionary work—for a missionary work it was from the beginning to the end—and the tired brain and hands are at rest. He died, I believe, of angina pectoris, and appropriately, for his great heart throbbed responsively to every sorrowful plea, and went out unreservedly to the least and lowliest of his brethren. Bishop Lay was sometimes called the Leighton of the American Church, and the gifts and graces of the great archbishop lived anew in him in such generous measure that no one disputed the fitness of the designation. What he was as a writer, a scholar, a preacher, a citizen, most of you know as well as I, but observing him as I did while serving him and others for seventeen years as Secretary of the House of Bishops, I came to think of him chiefly as a counsellor. He saw the issue of proposed lines of action with a marvellous and almost unerring vision. His voice was never uncertain, and it was never feverish or impatient. His very presence calmed and restrained, and his opinions gently and quietly expressed and singularly just and fair, had the force and solemnity oftentimes of a judicial decision. His loss to the house in which he sat for nearly thirty years, to the diocese of which he was the first bishop, and to the whole Church in this land is one which may well make us go mourning for many days. May God give to us all something of his singular simplicity, dignity and devotion in his Master's work!"

A DRIVE FROM CENTREVILLE TO NEW YORK.—The Centreville Record states that Col. Wm. McKenney and wife will start about the 20th of the present month to drive from Centreville to New York. Col. McKenney's object is to inspect the farming en route, especially in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. The return route from New York to Philadelphia and from the latter place to Wilmington will be changed so as to give variety of scenery and interest to the trip, which will cover a period of three weeks at least.

THE CECIL FAIR.—Of the fair at Elkton last week the Cecil county News says: The fair last week, dull weather and all, was a great success. The displays in the different departments of the exhibition were simply immense and when the managers rose to the demands of the occasion and ordered all frauds and fakirs from the grounds, paying them back their privilege money, the fair, from that hour, was the best, best arranged and displayed, and most attractive, interesting, instructive and complete agricultural exhibition ever seen in Maryland.

COLORED DISPUTANTS.—John Hiley and David Page, two prominent colored republicans of Newberne, Pulaski county, Va., will shortly have a public debate on the question as to whether any true republican, white or colored, should support the Mahone ticket, headed as it is throughout by renegade democrats. Hiley, who has publicly announced his purpose of voting the straight democratic ticket in this election, will take the negative of the proposition and Page the affirmative. Each party to the discussion has the right to select his own coadvocates. The discussion promises to be interesting.

A Fourth Ticket for Caroline.

A dispatch from Denton to the Baltimore Sun says: "Quite a stir has been created in Caroline politics by the display of handbills, with the following notice: 'All persons, both white and colored, who believe in the political rights of all men without regard to race or color, are requested to meet in convention at the courthouse in Denton, on Tuesday, 20th of October, 1885, to nominate a straightout republican ticket for Caroline county, in accordance with the Chicago platform that nominated James G. Blaine for President in 1884, which allows of no discrimination on account of race or color in holding offices or places of public trust, the ticket to be composed of both white and colored persons who are competent and worthy, believing the colored men have served the party of white republicans in this county long and faithfully enough to now participate in the management and control of the laws that govern them.' Several prominent white republicans are pushing the movement, and it is thought a ticket will be nominated composed of white and colored men, and that it will get the bulk of the colored vote. The movement originated in the fourth district, where there was a contest at the late republican primaries."

THE Philadelphia Press thus gets in its work on Gen. B. F. Butler: "He tells the country that he was made deaf by cannon fired in its defense. This is a joke, however, Butler's sense of hearing being more acute than that of any other person now before the public. We betray no secret when we inform our readers that Butler is the only man in the country who can hear himself think that he will some day be president."

THE rise and success of bachelors as political candidates causes alarm to the social circle, but the New Orleans Picayune thinks it is all right, for "a man who goes through a campaign as candidate for a high office is bound to lose his character, and it is better that he should be unmarried."

The Gunning Season.

The new game law provides that it shall not be lawful to shoot or trap any partridges or rabbits in Kent county "between the fifteenth day of January and the twenty-fifth day of October," so that the gunning season will commence Monday week. Just here it may not be out of place to offer a word of caution to sportsmen. A great many farmers object to gunners going upon their lands to hunt; they have been annoyed and injured by such trespass, and beside that they count the sporting privileges of their farms as of value to themselves, just as their fruit and their grain, poultry or stock, are their own, and no one has a right to disturb them in the enjoyment of the one any more than in the other. A number have already published notices cautioning gunners from trespassing upon them, and those who disregard such notice do it at their peril. The law is ample and stringent for the protection of farmers against all trespassers. Therefore gunners will only be on the safe side by obtaining permission from the owners or occupants of lands to hunt thereon.

In Queen Anne's the season to trap or shoot partridges begins on the first day of November and ends the second day of December following, giving sportsmen thirty-two days to slaughter the birds. The season to shoot or trap rabbits also begins on the first of November and closes the twenty-fourth of December following. Non-residents of the county are required to take out a license to shoot or trap any game, and pay $4.50 for the same.

KILLED BY A FALL FROM A WINDOW.—A dispatch dated Chester, Pa., Oct. 11, says: "A fatal accident occurred to Mrs. Julie Stevens, the mother of Rev. Theodore Stevens, pastor of Madison Street Methodist Church, this morning. She had been sleeping in the third story of the residence of her son, and arising about four o'clock this morning, she went to the window and accidently fell to the pavement. In her descent she struck the second story shutters, and it was this that aroused the inmates of the house. When found she was frightfully mangled and bruised and lived but a few minutes. She was well-known in Philadelphia, where she spent much of her life. She was in her seventieth year."

This lady was the mother of Wm. Stevens, Esq., one of the judges of our Orphans' Court. She was well-known in the lower part of the county, where she spent much of her time with her son.

JUDGES OF ELECTION.—The county commissioners on Tuesday last appointed the following gentlemen to act as judges of election:

First District, Geo. W. Jacoby, Jas. J. Spear, Thomas J. F. Smith; second, Daniel U. Dewees, H. Craighton Wallis, Thos. S. Wilmer; third, Jas. S. Harris, Jas. S. Gemmill, Harrison I. Parsons; fourth, 1st precinct, John R. Gray, Sam'l Vannort, James W. Lambert; 2d precinct, Thos. D. France, Gustavus Startt, Cornelius G. Hadaway; fifth, James L. Beck, William F. Baker, W. W. Coleman.

MR. W. T. LANE's Bessie J. distinguished herself at Elkton by winning the 2.30 race. Bessie J. took second money in 2.35 race at Dover. The Elkton race, 2.30 class, purse $300, was paced as follows:

W. T. Lane, Kennedyville, Bessie J.	1	2	1	1
W. A. Ogden, Phila., Sallie C.	3	1	2	2
Wm. Nicholson, Phila., Edith Watton	2	3	3	3
W. H. Sharp, Phila., Lady Fashion	dis.

Time, 2.34, 2.33¼, 2.33¼, 2.33¼.

COURT.—The Circuit Court for Kent county begins next Monday. The number of cases docketed is as follows: 13 appeals, 47 appearances and 103 trials. The session will be prolonged on account of three railroad cases removed from Cecil county in which the following counsel appear: Messrs. Alexander Evans, Albert Constable, Wm. J. Jones, John S. Wirt, Wm. T. Warburton, Jr., and H. Arthur Stump.

FARMS SOLD.—The late Daniel Jones farm, near Kennedyville, containing 103 acres, has been sold at private sale by J. A. Pearce, Esq., att'y for the owner, to Mrs. James W. Hurtt, of Locust Grove, for $9,000. The farm belonged to J. W. Jones, Esq., president of the Reading R. R.

C. H. Baker, Esq., has sold at private sale to ex-sheriff R. W. Calder the Skinner farm at Fairlee landing, containing 114 acres, for $3,225.

FIRE.—The hay barracks and six or seven stacks of straw on the premises of Mr. Fred. B. Gemmill, at Rees' Corner, were destroyed by fire on Friday night of last week. Loss from $250 to $300—no insurance. The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

THE supper at Masseys last Thursday night, given by Democratic candidates and presided over by George F. Hall, was quite a success. There was a large crowd on hand and everything passed off splendidly. The "Old First" will give a good account of herself November 3.

SASSAFRAS POSTMASTER.—Congressman Gibson has requested the appointment of W. T. Johnson as postmaster at Sassafras, and he will be commissioned accordingly.

Sale of wood lots near Tolchester, Saturday, Nov. 7th, by James A. Pearce, Esq.

THE old outbuildings of the county jail were sold last Tuesday to Mr. James Lewis, of Worton, for $60 cash, the same to be removed at an early day.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Oct. 13.—Present, Judges Walker and Hyland

John W. Corey and Sarah M. Usilton, adm'rs of John N. Usilton, filed an additional list of debts due said deceased.

A decree was granted Harrison W. Vickers to sell the real estate of Johnanna Coleman, deceased, as trustee.

LARGE FIRE AT EASTON.—Fire broke out about four o'clock Friday morning of last week in Samuel Gale's livery stable, in the western part of Easton. The building and contents, including ten horses, two mules, one cow, a number of carriages, harness, hay, grain, &c., were destroyed. The new stable and carriage warehouse of Lloyd Lowndes, adjoining, was also burned. Mr. Lowndes' loss is over $3,000; insurance $2,500. Mr. Gale's loss is about $2,500. He had no insurance. The building, owned by Miss Louisa Tilghman, and valued at $500, was not insured. Mr. M. M. Higgins had a horse burned up in Gale's stable, and several persons lost carriages and harness.

FIRST GUN OF THE CAMPAIGN.—The first gun of the campaign in Queen Anne's county was fired on Kent Island, last Tuesday night, by our candidate for the Legislature, Edward C. Legg, Esq. He made an excellent speech, and answered to the satisfaction of the oystermen all questions asked. Col. Wm. Henry Legg also made an able speech at the same meeting. Mr. Edw. C. Legg surprised all of his acquaintances and friends in the manner in which he acquitted himself at his first effort.—Record.

A CURIOUS MALFORMATION.—Mr. H. Harrison Price brought with him to town Saturday morning a most extraordinary malformation of a calf that one of his cows dropped. The thing was dead and covered with natural hair, but there was no split in the hoofs, very little intestines, nothing to indicate the gender, a head only two inches in diameter, but well-formed teeth. Laid on its back it looked like a bird. The head, however, looked much like the head of a snapping turtle. The body was only about a foot long, but the hind legs were pretty well formed, except the hoofs lacked the usual split.—Easton Star.

THE commission of Wm. J. Hand, postmaster at Centreville, expires today, and he will be succeeded by Daniel C. Hopper.

PARALYZED.—Mr. S. H. Blackiston, deputy clerk of our Circuit Court, was suddenly stricken with paralysis last Saturday night. On retiring at about 11.30 he went to the hall outside his bedroom to extinguish a lamp. He fell, and was assisted to his bed in an almost unconscious condition. Doctor Perkins and Beck were sent for and on examination found that his left side from head to foot was totally paralyzed. Mr. Blackiston was in apparently robust health on Saturday. He was regular in his habits and accustomed himself to daily pedestrian exercise, and being a comparatively young man the news of his affliction was the more surprising to our citizens, by whom he is highly esteemed. There has been but little improvement in his condition during the week, but the physicians thought his symptoms were favorable yesterday morning. He was conscious and talked more rationally. Dr. Beck has secured the services of Mr. Chase, the efficient deputy under Mr. D. C. Blackiston's administration of the office, who is thoroughly familiar with all the duties of the position.

A REMEDY FOR HOG CHOLERA.—As this disease is prevalent in our county and many persons are inquiring for a remedy for it, we give the following receipt as furnished by a correspondent of the Farm and Fireside, published at Springfield, Ohio, who claims it as one of the best used: Madder, 1 pound; resin, 1 pound; saltpetre, 1 pound; sulphur, 1 pound; black antimony, ½ pound; copperas, 1½ pounds; asafœtida, ½ pound; arsenic, 2 ounces. As a preventive of disease, give one tablespoonful of this mixture to five hogs twice a week. If sick give three tablespoonfuls a day. Pulverize all the ingredients well, and give with soft food. For fowls give a tablespoonful, mixed with bran, for twenty fowls, each morning.

TOTAL REGISTERED VOTE.—The following table gives the total registration in this county as compared with that of last year, from which it will be seen that there is a gain of 74 in the white and 4 in the colored vote:

PERSONAL.—Cards are out announcing the nuptials of Robert J. Catlin, Esq., of Queen Anne's county, and Miss A. Virginia Merryman, to take place at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. V. Gaddess, 141 Arlington avenue, Lafayette Square, Baltimore, on Tuesday next, October 20th, at eleven A. M.

Rev. J. E. Bryan has decided to accept the invitation to become pastor of Asbury Church, Wilmington, at the next conference. Mr. Bryan is now serving his second year in Cambridge and ranks foremost among the members of his conference.

Mr. John H. Scott, of Skinner's Neck, has lost his daughter—an interesting young lady—of that terrible disease diphtheria. This is the only case in the neighborhood.

Rev. James L. Houston, a patriarch of the M. E. Church, who makes his home with a married daughter in Ohio, is now on a visit in Kent. Forty years ago Mr. H. was on Kent circuit, which then embraced all the churches from Millington to Rock Hall. He served two years, the first with Rev. R. E. Kemp as his senior, and the second with Rev. Joseph Mason for assistant. He is now a superannuate of the Wilmington Conference, and though 74 years of age, is active in movement and a bright and cheerful conversationalist. It has been to him like a renewal of his youth to meet and commune with friends of long ago. The late Dr. Maxwell, of Still Pond, was a brother-in-law of Mr. H., and at Mr. Samuel Davis', near Stoneton, and at Dr. J. T. Twilley's, in Chestertown, he has spent a part of his time during his present visit to Kent.

We regret to learn that Mr. Chas. W. Warren, Kennedyville, whose illness has been heretofore reported, is not improving. He is in a critical condition at this writing.

Mrs. Stanley, widow of the late C. A. A. Stanley, of Chestertown, now of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. J. H. Simpers.

MARRIED.

At the M. P. Parsonage, near Edesville, Oct. 6, by Rev. R. L. Lewis, JOHN V. KILBURN and Miss KATE MASLIN, both of this county.

DIED.
