Sierra Leone 11 Aug 11th 1836

Sir

This will be handed you by Mr Joseph Spalding, a young Gentleman of worth and intelligence. He is employed in my office as assistant and in him I place the greatest Confidence.

His object in visiting you is to present you two certificates made out by me for negroes Hendley & Hampton (who probably will be present with him at his visit to you) for your approval or refusal — I shall receive your free instructions to them a particular favour to

Sir Yr Ob Sr
