Dear Sir,

The day after I received your letter enclosing one from yr friend Professor Andrews, I had them forwarded to my brother, with the request that he would favour me with the information asked for in their letters as speedily as practicable. It is only to-day I have heard from him. And the information he gives is not such as yr letters ask for. but I am unwilling to wait until I can hear more fully & definitely. The gentleman who owns the Wife & four children and the husband Robert whom I named on my list to you. asks for the former $12.000 and $1000 for the man. These are willing to go. The ~~H~~ husband named on the list ~~Harry~~ Harry, is also willing to go. ~~but his~~ and his Master is very willing that he should. but must have his place supplied by another. and is willing to take for him just what it may cost him to supply his place. He cannot decide yet what that amount may be. I presume not over eight hundred dollars. as he is somewhat advanced in years. My woman Peggy's husband is very unwilling to go, I understand, and will submit to ascription sooner than go to Liberia. Charlotte her Mother, whom I had been infor-
