Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING..........Nov. 21, 1885

It seems to be generally understood, says a correspondent, that the President will make all the prominent federal appointments in Maryland in a bunch, some time early next year.

President Cleveland's plan of dealing with the silver question is to coin dollars of a weight in silver that will make them equal in value to gold. That is the honest solution of the problem.

The Maryland Democratic Association of Washington at a meeting on Monday night adopted a motion to strike off the name of Representative Findlay from the list of honorary members. Served him right!

Burglars successfully "cracked" a safe in the grocery store of Thomas M. Reese & Son, southeast corner of Charles and Mulberry streets, Baltimore, Monday night, and secured money and valuables amounting to over $5,000.

It is announced that the President already feels a great relief since he issued the order directing that office-seekers and their friends should be excluded from his presence. He now has more time to attend to the public business and also has some chance to rest.

Congress meets on the first Monday in December. It is said that Hon. John G. Carlisle will have no opposition for the Speakership of the next House. The Washington hotel men are getting ready to scoop in the visitors to the capital. They expect a great rush of business this winter and the city promises to be unusually lively.

Senator Warfield, of Howard county, is probably the coming man for President of the Maryland Senate. He is a popular gentleman and would no doubt make a very acceptable presiding officer. The names of Joseph B. Seth, Esq., of Talbot county, and Gen. A. G. Chapman, of Charles, are being mentioned for the Speakership of the House.

The hostilities which have commenced between Servia and Bulgaria are insignificant in themselves, but, as the London Standard says, no one can predict the limit to the area or to the intensity of the fire which this spark may kindle. It is by no means improbable that we may see a general European war without a parallel in history for magnitude and important results.

The President on Tuesday appointed Wm. F. Harrity postmaster of Philadelphia. Mr. Harrity is a lawyer, about 35 years of age. He has been an active worker in democratic politics, was chairman of the city democratic committee, and is said to be a man of high character and ability. He was indorsed by Mr. Randall and all the democrats of prominence in Philadelphia.

Louis David Riel, the half-breed leader, was hanged at Regina, N. W. T., Monday. Considerable feeling was excited among French-Canadians by the execution. In Montreal 10,000 persons paraded through the streets with French flags and burned Sir John MacDonald in effigy in front of the Queen's statue. A number of shots were exchanged with the police, but no one was hurt.

To secure a majority in the Senate of the Fiftieth Congress the Democrats will only need to elect their men next year from four States like California, Connecticut, Indiana, Nevada, New York and New Jersey, in which they have elected Senators when a Republican administration was in power. They may not succeed in doing this, but it is the height of folly to maintain that they are certain to fail.

William Jones, son of John W. Jones, of Church Creek, Dorchester county, and an unknown colored man, who were dredge hands on the bugeye Saucy Jane, were drowned on Friday night of last week off Cook's Point. The vessel was capsized about twilight by a sudden gust from the northwest. Captain William Aspen and one of the hands clung to the masthead and were rescued the next morning by a passing schooner.

Governor Lloyd has issued a proclamation designating Thursday next, November 26th, as Thanksgiving Day. He congratulates the people of Maryland on the fact that they have not been visited by any general calamity during the past year, but on the contrary have enjoyed an unusual measure of prosperity, and advises them on the day appointed "to abstain from all secular pursuits and apply themselves to the services and duties worthy the occasion."

THE MEANEST MAN!

We thought we were pretty well posted in Maryland politics. We knew of the manipulations and maneuverings of the so-called "Reformers" of Baltimore—those men who professed to be Democrats and yet tried to destroy the Democratic party in order to destroy one man; we saw Teackle Wallis and John Findlay, and others like them, in all their groveling meanness. The Honorable Michael's exploits in Anne Arundel and dear old friend Meekins' stilting in Dorchester were posted before us, but yet we wrote down James Nicholas Brewer the meanest man (politically) in Maryland. This notice is not for the purpose of recording this conclusion. It is to confess an error. We have done James Nicholas Brewer an injustice. He was mean, that's a fact. Meaner, we believe, than any of the mean one's coming under our notice. He held one of the principal court clerkships in the city under the Democratic party for three consecutive terms—eighteen years—and because he couldn't get a nomination for a fourth time, or because he was sure he had got about all he could ever expect from the Democracy, he turned against the party and did his best in aiding the fusionists to kill the mother that nursed him! Yes, he was mean—we thought the meanest man in the State, and so noted down his status. But we are now further enlightened, and we hasten to reconsider the above conclusion and declare that even Brewer has been eclipsed. Mr. Irving Thomas Matthews, of Worcester county, takes the cake! He is the meanest man in Maryland. He not only held the Clerkship of that county for eighteen years under the Democratic party and wanted it again, and because he couldn't get it under that party joined the fusionists—ran for clerk as an independent and got licked,—but he now caps the climax by declaring his purpose to contest the election! He states his belief that irregularities enough in the ballots will be discovered to give him the election. And those who know Mr. Irving Thomas pretty well think this claim is likely to be made good, on its face, as he is the present happy custodian of said ballots!

May the good Lord save Worcester from the curse of another such political nondescript as this man must be, and avert the present evil!

The sentence of death was imposed by Judge Holland at Cambridge, Md., on Monday upon Charles Williams, colored, who was convicted of assaulting Mrs. Eliza J. Keene, white, in a lonely woods, near Powell's woods, Dorchester county, last spring. For three successive years there has been an execution in Dorchester county. George Lake was hanged for felonious assault upon a lady living in the same district as Williams' victim in 1882, and Fred., alias "Bug" Cephas was executed in 1884 for the murder of Mrs. Celia Bush. The duty of executing the sentence in the case of Williams will devolve upon the newly-elected sheriff, Luther P. Martin.

The Philadelphia Times claims that Chincoteague Island, Va., is the second finest ducking point on the Atlantic coast, but concedes the first place to Havre de Grace.

The Centreville Record declares "Prof. Lowanda and his troupe professional humbugs."

REV. DR. GEO. WILLIAMSON SMITH ELECTED BISHOP.

The special convention of the diocese of Easton, called to elect a bishop of the diocese, met in Easton on Wednesday. Delegates were present from all the charges in the diocese, which includes all the counties of the Eastern Shore. From Kent the following clerical and lay delegates were present: Chestertown—Rev. Stephen C. Roberts, Wm. S. Walker; I. U.—Rev. John Martin; North Kent—Rev. Wm. Brittain, E. W. Hepbron; St. Paul's—Rev. Henry Wall, J. Chas. Wheatley; Shrewsbury—Rev. R. Heber Murphy, Dennis J. Nowland. J. A. Pearce, Esq., chancellor of the diocese, was also present.

In the morning memorial services were held and a sermon was preached by Right Rev. H. C. Potter, D. D., Assistant Bishop of New York, who paid a glowing tribute to the worth of Bishop Lay.

In the afternoon the clerical and lay delegates held an informal meeting in private to exchange views and determine upon unity of action.

The convention reassembled at 7 o'clock, and after three ballots elected Rev. Dr. Geo. Williamson Smith, president of Trinity College, of Hartford, Connecticut, bishop.

The following nominations were made: Rev. Dr. Henry A. Coit, of New Hampshire, was nominated by Rev. Wm. Schuler; Rev. Dr. T. P. Barber, of Cambridge, by Mr. W. S. Craft; Rev. Dr. John S. Lindsay, of Georgetown, D. C., by Rev. Dr. E. J. Stearns; Rev. Dr. J. L. Nicholson, of Philadelphia, by Rev. W. Y. Beaven; Rev. Dr. Campbell Fair, of Baltimore, by Dr. H. Wall; Rev. Warren C. Hubbard, of Long Island, by Rev. C. H. Vandyne; Rev. Dr. Geo. Williamson Smith, of Conn., by Rev. Dr. Barber.

The newly-elected bishop, Rev. Dr. Geo. Williamson, D. D., is about 50 years old. He was ordained in Maryland in 1860, and was for a time assistant in Epiphany Church, Washington. He was at one time a chaplain in the United States navy. He has been rector of a church at Jamaica, Long Island, then went to the Church of the Redeemer, Brooklyn, N. Y., and then became president of Trinity College, which position he has held about five years. He stands high as a scholar and an executive officer, and the unanimity displayed in his election is a matter of congratulation among the churchmen of this diocese.

A Sad and Fatal Gunning Accident in Cecil.—About two o'clock last Saturday afternoon Lewis T. Boulden, a young farmer residing near Chesapeake City, drove into that place in search of a companion to go gunning with him. He had a double-barreled breach-loading gun in the back of the buggy, which he was taking out muzzle foremost, when both barrels were discharged and the load entered his abdomen, inflicting a terrible wound, which caused his death a few minutes afterwards. The victim of the accident was well-to-do, aged about 28 years and leaves a wife and one child. He was well known in sporting circles, owning a horse which has taken premiums at Cecil and other county fairs. The funeral took place on Monday and we are informed that the cortege was fully a mile in length. The widow of deceased is a daughter of the late John Cavender and a granddaughter of Mrs. Robert Kimble, who resides near Chestertown.

The Winners.—The following were the principal articles disposed of by raffle at the late Catholic fair at the town hall:

Domestic Sewing Machine, Wm. F. Baker; gold watch, W. F. Harkins, Wilmington; silver watch, M. Cummings; bride, Mrs. Mattie Moffet; Life of Christ, John McCauley; ton of coal, Dan McKee; crazy sofa cushion, Maggie Gorman, Wilmington; em. table cover, Mary McGaugh, Wilmington; pair of ottomans, Henry Rowland; bedstead, Wm. Jewell; slippers, Mr. Wallis; gold ring, Jacob Zeisal; oil painting, J. McCauley; banner, Mame Cummings, Baltimore; box of cigars, Mr. Scully; lamp, Capt. Stokes; knives and forks, Capt. Brice; bishop's picture, Mrs. Massey; blankets, John Zeisal; pincushion, Mrs. Murphy, Wilmington; plated spoons, Jos. Guest; prayer book, T. Tollinger; canary bird, Joseph Coombs, Wilmington.

Father Scott requests us to return his thanks to the community for the liberal patronage extended the fair.

More Cruelty to Dredge Hands.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes from Salisbury, Md.: Already this season large numbers of oyster dredgers are passing through Salisbury on their way up the shore. Several have arrived here this week, and all relate stories of ill-treatment by oyster captains. One poor fellow was allowed to sleep in the jail Wednesday night, and exhibited scars on his head and back, the result of being beaten with a shovel. He stated that he escaped by tying his clothes on his back and swimming from the vessel to the shore, stealing away while all hands were asleep.

Noah Cherry, colored, of near Norfolk, Va., was hanged by a mob on Sunday night for murdering Alice Powell, daughter of his late employer; he confessed to the crime as the rope was being adjusted. The girl, who was about fourteen years old, went to school as usual on Friday, but not returning, a search was instituted, which resulted in the finding of her body about 11 o'clock Friday night, with the throat cut, the head nearly severed, and three stab wounds in the body.

Hon. John S. Gittings, the present State Treasurer, will have no opposition before the next Legislature and will be elected his own successor. During the short time that he has filled that office he has shown that he possesses eminent ability to discharge its duties in the most satisfactory manner, and as he has proven so careful and efficient an officer it is proper that he should be chosen for a full term by the next Legislature.

Commissions Received.—The commissions for the newly elected officers of this county were received at the office of the Clerk of the circuit court on the 14th instant. Such officers are required to qualify within thirty days from the above date, otherwise the places become vacant.

Messrs. Chapman & Lambert have fitted up a neat private office in connection with their carriage factory. They have put in a new fireproof safe, and are fitted up very comfortably and conveniently.

Fine Potatoes.—Mr. John F. Shriver has left at our office some fine specimens of Peach Blow potatoes raised on his place in Quaker Neck, a number of which weigh over a pound each.

Corrigan Heads the List.—In gross earnings Mr. Edward Corrigan, of the Kansas City Stables, is the largest winning owner of 1885. His total of $96,800 exceeds the gross earnings of Mr. Pierre Lorillard's Rancocas Stable by $633. This is the first time the largest racing winner has hailed from west of the Mississippi. The leading winners from Mr. Corrigan's stables were Freeland, $22,445; Irish Pat, $15,315; Modesty, $14,905; Lizzie Dwyer, $9,090, and Ida Hope, $8,020.

The next session of the Wilmington Conference will be held in Elkton, March 4th, and will be presided over by Bishop Mallalieu.

The Methodist Episcopalians of Easton contemplate building a new church, or enlarging and otherwise improving the present edifice.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will, it is said, build a fine hotel on its depot property in Philadelphia.

The Still Pond Burglary—The Remainder of the Stolen Goods Found.—We gave last week the particulars of the burglary of Mr. George W. Harper's store in Still Pond and the arrest of Alex. Corse and Ben. Scott of Chestertown with a portion of the goods in their possession. The explanation they gave of the part they took in the affair was considered too flimsy in the first place to bear its own weight, and subsequent light upon the burglary makes it pretty conclusive that Corse and Scott were alone in the commission of it. On Thursday of last week Mr. Harper telephoned to deputy-sheriff Dugan to meet him at Galena. He thought he had a clue to a colored man living in the forest. He went with officer Dugan to the forest and they found the man they were looking for, but, upon close questioning they believed that he had not taken part in the robbery. Officer Dugan also telegraphed to Middletown, Del., for the arrest of Johnson, the party charged by Corse and Scott with being in the robbery. Johnson was arrested but there appeared to be insufficient evidence to hold him and his release was accordingly ordered. On Saturday morning Mr. Harper found in the straw stacks on the farm tenanted by Mr. Bowers near Still Pond, the remainder of his property, consisting of overcoats, boots, &c.; also a valise containing a lot of burglars' tools.

Application has been made to Justice Starkey to admit Corse and Scott to bail, but the justice gave the opinion that it was not a bailable case.

There have been a number of burglaries in Chestertown within the past six months, and it is believed that these parties now in jail compose at least a part of the gang that committed them.

A Severe Kick.—Willie Startt, the six-year-old son of Jas. M. Startt, was standing near the corner of Princes and Cannon streets last Thursday when a horse coming near him tempted a lick with a switch. The horse in return toppled the little fellow over by a kick in the stomach. He was taken into the residence of Mr. Hopkins, near by, unconscious and with blood frothing from his mouth. Dr. J. W. Cooper was sent for and treated the child and he is now out again and apparently as well as ever, but he made a narrow escape.

Interesting Church History.—On the first page of the News will be found extracts from the address of Rev. R. Heber Murphy on the 215th anniversary of Shrewsbury Church, in this county. It is a most interesting paper, and the reverend gentleman's patient and industrious researches will be highly appreciated by the church of today as well as the long line of descendants of the fathers of "Old Shrewsbury."

Mr. John C. Johnson has purchased the stock of goods advertised by Hope H. Barroll, Esq., trustee of Bottomly & Johnson, to be sold this week at public auction in Millington. Hence the auction did not come off. Mr. Johnson also purchased the right to continue at the same stand occupied by Bottomly & Johnson until the end of the current year.

Matrimonial—A Quiet Wedding.

MORRIS—WATSON.

At St. James' Methodist Protestant parsonage, on Wednesday evening last, Miss Jessie M. Watson, daughter of Mr. Edw. J. Watson, and Mr. John E. Morris, son of Mr. Wm. Morris, were united in wedlock by Rev. A. W. Mather. The amiable and popular young couple have the congratulations and best wishes of numerous friends.

Marriage Bells at Dover, Del.

HUTCHISON—CAHOON.

The nuptials of Mr. J. C. Hutchison, Jr., of the firm Hutchison & Hill, Philadelphia, and Miss Blanche Cahoon, daughter of Wm. Cahoon, Jr., of Dover, were the occasion of a large, interested gathering at the M. E. Church, on Wednesday, 11th instant. The beautiful audience-room was tastefully decorated with bright flowers; a large bank of chrysanthemums occupied the centre with a monogram of their last name at the top. Mr. Loudenbaugh, the organist, entertained the audience while waiting for the appearance of the bridal procession. A little after two o'clock, while the audience arose to receive them, they entered and in good style approached the altar, where Rev. T. E. Martindale waited to receive them. Mr. Walter S. Hill, partner of the groom, and Mr. D. P. Hutchison, brother of the groom, acted as ushers, assisted by Mr. Harris and Mr. Lattomus. The pretty bride and manly bridegroom came in with quiet dignity and were soon made one by the usual ceremony. The bride was dressed in a handsome garnet velvet costume and carried a beautiful bouquet. To the happy strains of the organ they paired out and with a company of friends repaired to the house of the bride's father where a handsome collation was prepared. They took the four o'clock train for Washington. The day was bright and beautiful and truly such be the vista of their future. The presents were numerous and handsome.

DONALDSON—SHOEMAKER.

Miss Ellen Shoemaker, daughter of the late Samuel M. Shoemaker, was married at 6 o'clock last Tuesday evening at Emmanuel Protestant Episcopal Church, Baltimore, to Mr. John J. Donaldson, of the Baltimore bar. The church was crowded and a number of the ladies were in full dress. The bride entered the church leaning upon the arm of her brother, Mr. Sam'l M. Shoemaker, Jr. The ushers led the way. At the chancel the bride was met by the groom and his best man, Mr. J. Swann Frick. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Eccleston, rector of Emmanuel Church, assisted by his brother, Rev. Dr. J. C. Eccleston, of New York, who are kinsmen of the bride. At the conclusion of the service the Rev. J. H. Eccleston presented her with the prayer-book from which he had been reading. The bride wore a white tulle veil, and a white satin gown trimmed with white ostrich plumes. In her hand she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. At night Mr. and Mrs. John J. Donaldson left the city on their bridal trip.

A DUAL WEDDING.

Wednesday, at half-past two o'clock, the M. E. Church of Centreville was filled to overflowing with an audience assembled to witness the imposing marriage ceremony between Miss Dorothy Arters and Mr. Frederick E. Thomas, of Kent Island, and Miss Annie Arters and Mr. W. E. Ringgold, of Kent Island. The two ladies are daughters of Rev. J. A. Arters, pastor of the M. E. Church of Centreville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John France, presiding elder of Easton district, and Rev. J. A. Arters, father of the brides. The happy couples took the afternoon train to Philadelphia, whence they will proceed to Baltimore, and thence to Washington, returning after a short stay to make their future home on Kent Island.—Record.

Rapid Growth of Hogs.—Richard Jones, a colored carter of Chestertown, purchased of Mr. Wilbur Eliason in October of last year three Poland China pigs which, on the 19th of December following, weighed together 105 pounds. They were killed on the 17th instant and weighed 1,217 pounds net, showing a gain of 1,112 lbs. in 332 days, or an average of 370⅔ pounds per hog, besides the difference between live and net weight. "Dick" would like to know who can beat this on the increase!

The present season has not been remarkable for big porkers in Chestertown. Capt. Wm. H. Palmer had two very fine hogs weighing 311 and 333 pounds; Mr. Wm. F. Blackway two 345 and 217; Mr. Chas. E. Roland one 307, and others killed this week weighed as follows: Henry Gilbert 216, 227; Jos. Smith 231½; Capt. Demby 224, 233; Isaac Freeman 273; Lorenzo Dunn 247, 250; Wm. Goldsborough 237, 271; Clinton Wright 322; Jas. Chambers 201, 237, 231; Wm. Gilbert 184, 212; Peter Tilghman 299, 163.

Jas. P. Hatcherson, sheriff-elect, filed his bond in the penal sum of $25,000 with security, which was approved and ordered to be filed in the clerk's office for record.

The New County Officers.—Mr. James P. Hatcherson, sheriff-elect, bonded last Tuesday in the sum of $25,000 and took the oath of office, his bondsmen being Messrs. G. W. Hatcherson, Robert R. Hatcherson, John Brice, R. C. Smyth and James U. Scoon. Sheriff Hatcherson has appointed Mr. Lawrence A. Thomas deputy-sheriff and the latter has taken up his residence at the jail. Deputy-sheriff Dugan removes to the dwelling in Market Space formerly occupied by Mr. McFadden.

Mr. T. Romie Strong, the Register of Wills elect, will "take hold" December 1st, that being the beginning of the new fiscal year. He gives bond in $7,000. Dr. Beck, who succeeds himself as clerk of the circuit court, will also renew his oath and bond on the 1st of December—his bond being for $14,000.

The newly elected board of county commissioners will probably have its first meeting and organize on the first Tuesday, being the first day of December. The last meeting of the old board will be held on Tuesday next.

Mr. Adam Diehl, who is visiting relatives in Cincinnati, Ohio, together with his brother, Richard, in a recent letter to a friend in Kent says that ever since leaving Maryland their trip has been nothing but pleasure. They have recently spent a few days with friends in Loveland, Ohio. On Wednesday next they start with a party of ladies and gentlemen for a trip to New Orleans, and after that will visit the principal cities of Tennessee, North and South Carolina, Georgia and Texas, the trip will last about 18 days, and they expect to return home shortly before Christmas.

Mr. Scotten Gets $2,000.—The damage suit of Willard H. Scotten, of Crumpton, against the P., W. & B. Railroad, for injuries to his person, was called for trial at Easton last Wednesday, when the case was compromised by the payment of $2,000 to Scotten. It will be remembered that Mr. Scotten was seriously hurt in the collision at Clayton on the Delaware Division of the P., W. & B. about one year ago. Suit for damages was brought at Elkton and subsequently removed to Easton.

Mrs. Smith at Still Pond.—Mrs. Smith, the lady evangelist from Philadelphia, has been doing a good work in Still Pond this week. Large congregations have attended the church services and on Thursday night there were ten penitents at the altar. The services will be continued the coming week, and they are expected to be held during the day as well as in the evening.

The concert advertised to be held in Still Pond on the 26th is postponed indefinitely on account of the interest in the revival meetings there. Due notice will be given when another date is decided upon.

Thanksgiving Day.—Next Thursday, being Thanksgiving Day, is a legal holiday and the bank and public offices will be closed. Those interested should make a note of the fact.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.
STATE OF MARYLAND.
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Annapolis, Md., Nov. 12, 1885.

The manifold blessings and mercies of a kind Providence, always ready to give more than we desire or deserve, appeal to the people of this State to unite in heartfelt and grateful praise and thanksgiving for the good things of the past year. Neither war, pestilence nor famine has invaded our land, but prosperity in every guise has been vouchsafed to us by Almighty God. In following the example of our illustrious and God-fearing President, as well as the custom of years, I, HENRY LLOYD, Governor of the State of Maryland, in this my proclamation to the people thereof, do set apart and declare THURSDAY, the 26th day of the present month of November, as a DAY OF THANKSGIVING, and I earnestly advise a people not only truly grateful for mercies past, but with a faithful reliance on Divine Providence for their future welfare, to abstain from all secular pursuits and apply themselves to services and duties worthy of the occasion. HENRY LLOYD, Governor.
Geo. B. Milligan, Secretary of State.
