minds may be more enlightened, and they may be convinced of its being to their Benefit, & thereby be induced to go, having done all in my power to persuade them to go, I now leave it to a Merciful God to direct them, and feel that I can do no more than to leave them the privilidge of going at my Death,

I am Sorry Sir to inform You that I do not think Your Visit to the County for the purpose of lecturing on the Subject of Colonization, would prove effectual, You can however Use Your own Judgement,

With Much respect
I am Sir,
Your Obt Serv
