Dear Sir

Corresp. & Secy Md S. C. Soc.

My last was short communication & I mistake not was sent from Gov. Thomas's. where I remain apart of two days employed in making arrangements for further operations. The first week was chiefly employed in visiting the following gentlemen viz. Messrs Cornelius Barber & Parnham, Gov. Thomas. Colo. Hoard Dr. Stone, Judge Dorsey. Dr. Boucoe Mr. Billingslea, Major Scott Mr H. G. S. Key. Mr Barber & Colo Causein. the last of whom was, too sick to be seen on any business. The two sabbaths have been very advantageously employed, without the least opportunity of making an appointment, The sabbath succeeding the friday on which I left the city. I addressed a respectable congregation at Bethel, a methodist church bordering on Charles county.
