Maryland Colony, & do not think they would hesitate to exchange their situation. If you should determine to come over from County-place write me & let me know when you will come. I think it likely I shall be here all the summer. I will gladly give you any information as to the state of feeling &c which may come to my knowledge, or afford you any facilities, in my power towards advancing the object you have in view.

The St. Inigoes Packet comes to White Haven, about 8 miles from this place, every Tuesday. You will find me at the Hotel of Col. Dashiell in this place, where I will be in attendance on the Steam boat, on its arrival at White Haven & on every day.

Very respectfully
Your Obt. Servt.
