As I expected when I saw you the negroe woman about whom I spoke to you, has consented to go with me to Cape Palmas. Be so good as to inform me whether or not there will be any objection to her going out in the expedition with me. If I am not mistaken you told me that it would be only necessary for me to bear her expenses out to the Colony, and that her outfit such as beds, implements of husbandry &c. &c would be furnished by the Society. If I am mistaken be so good as to let me know what articles she will want, in order that they may be prepared for her in time. Will you be so good as to send me any news connected with the cause of Colonization, as since I left the Seminary I have been entirely cut off from all information on this subject. Be assured that a communication will be at all times agreeable, dear brother, to yours truly, in the bonds of the Gospel, Jno Payne
