Letter 4 Sept 1836
John Adams.
William M. Stanley

Wm. M. Stanley Esq.
Colonization Office
Baltimore care of Post Office
of Baltimore

Cape Palmas Africa Sept 3 1836

My Honourable Sir I embrace the opportunity of writing these few lines to inform you that I am in good health hoping that these lines may find you the same Give my respect to the family I have from the Letter you received from Doctor Mills since she return of that letter I have lost my companion and I am left alone and all of my Children Children & Robert all because none of my family living but my self I have been occasion to weep much at the Lost of my companion but I have occasion to Rejoice that she died in triumphant in the Religion of our Saviour Jesus Christ I received your Letter I had one part of Joy that came to address my mind with a deal of satisfaction and comfort in answer to the letter that I sent him that of receiving a from him that he intended to send my Son I would be very happy to see him I dont expect ever to see any of the others and if I should not see him I never expect to see any until we met in Eternity I feels yet resign to do the will of God tho have had a many joyful season in the Devotions of the Sh of the Lord and I hope you will think as much p your Humble servant as to write to me again and I would be very Glad to Receive any thing that you would think proper to send me I would Receive it as a favour I am in want if you please to send me a pocket book if it is convenient I mentioned this not as I have any choice what I shall Receive any thing that please your honour to send me I would be glad to Receive and to Receive my Dear child I fals very Lonesome a lone being By my self Give my Love to the family and all enquiring friends If I should never see you more

Maryland Historical Society

The Maryland State Colonization Society Papers

II. Correspondence Received
A. Letter Books

3. 1836