To the Executive Committee

Gentlemen

In the absence of the Corresponding Mr John H B Latrobe I affords me pleasure to communicate to you the progress of my labours since the sailing of the Vessel, having reported fully up to that time.

After some consultation with a few members of the Board it was thought advisable that those points should be first visited where there was the strongest probability of securing emigrants for the fall expedition. I accordingly proceeded to revisit the upper part of Anne Arundel and Montgomery Counties where I had bestowed much labour during the spring months, and where I had reason to believe a deep and favourable impression had been made on the free coloured population.

~~Whilst~~ Without dwelling on subordinate points I shall give an account of my
