At a meeting of the Board of Managers of the Maryland State Colonization Society held at their office September 8th 1830. the following resolutions were passed.

Resolved that untill further orders of the Board, the Local Agent the Revd. A. McCaster be directed to confine himself to the duties of his office that are to be performed in Baltimore, that he attend to the bringing up and keeping in order and exact condition the Books and accounts of the society presenting to the Board at each meeting a statement of its means and liabilities. That he superintend the preparation, printing and distribution of the Colonization journal, so that the same may appear punctually. That he conduct, advising with the Corresponding Secretary such of the correspondence of the society as that office may direct. That he correspond throughout the State with a view to create and maintain an interest in the Society. That he apply himself in his discretion to making an impression upon the Colored people of Baltimore favorable to Emigration. —— That he collect funds in Baltimore for the use of the society and that generally he endeavor by personal effort to multiply the friends of the cause in this city. and that at each meeting of the Board he present such written suggestions as may be thought useful by him for their consideration.

Dr Resolved that the Young Mens society be informed of the duties that have thus been devolved upon the Local Agent, and respectfully requested to cooperate with the plans of the Board, by allowing their Agent the Rev. Mr Kennard to act as agent out of Baltimore in the collection of Emigrants, and when practicable, funds. this Board tendering to them the services of Mr Caster in their business in Baltimore.
