Dear Sir,

I have received your three letters 2 from Salisbury and one from Cambridge and am much pleased at the result of your visit — I have attended to all your requests — Harper & family with Jane Shook a young woman who consented to go after you left here — started for Baltimore some days since — Harper is very poor all his goods were taken to pay a debt he was security for — He is honest and will do well, if he can not get strong drink — I did not know that Jane was going with them, until after she was gone She is young and has had none to lead her in the way she should go — I do not know that she is immoral — It is now sad time with her, and I hope she may have such sorrow as will go up into eternal life — I wrote a long urgent, but respectfull letter in behalf of Harper's Son — It had not the wished for effect — like the early reformer I found old Adam too strong for young Melanthon — Methuty White was to see me, and says he will go to morrow, by the steam boat — Aaron Johnson & Edward Pemperton go by way
