Friendship 11th apl 1837

Mr Carter

I am again disappointed. The colored families who were expected, had had promised to go out in an spring expedition, have entirely declined - indeed one of them yesterday when I called that he hardly knew one, was not certain that he had seen me before. Thus it goes. What will be result of my visit cannot now be determined, but I spend & press strong confidence in ultimate success. Robert Griffith Esq. a prominent member of the ch. E. Church, has offered to all his servants, the privilege of going to Africa either this spring, or any future period. He is a strong friend of Colonization, tho' said yesterday that done than it should fall, he would sell his farm to raise funds. I have talked to his servants by his particular request. They have requested time to determine whether they will go this spring. and I am to stay with Mr Griffith tomorrow night, that we may receive their answer. Mr Griffith has ten servants, should they
