SATURDAY MORNING.........MAY 22, 1886.

A Christian Housekeeper.

The Rev. Dr. Talmage says: One of the most affecting reminiscences of my mother is my remembrance of her as a christian housekeeper. She worked very hard, and when we would come in from summer play, and sit down at the table at noon, I remember how she used to come in with beads of perspiration along the line of gray hair, and how sometimes she would sit down at the table, and put her head against her wrinkled hand and say: "Well, the fact is, I'm too tired to eat." Long after she might have delegated this duty to others, she would not be satisfied unless she attended to the matter herself. In fact, we all preferred to have her to do so, for somehow things tasted better when she prepared them. Some time ago, in an express train, I shot past the old homestead. I looked out of the window, and tried to peer through the darkness. While I was doing so, one of my old schoolmates, whom I had not seen for many years, slapped me on the shoulder, and said: "DeWitt, I see you are looking out at the scenes of your boyhood." "O, yes," I replied. "I was looking out at the old place where my mother lived and died." That night, in the cars, the whole scene came back to me. There were the children on either side of the table, most of them gone never to come back. At one end of the table, my father, with a smile that never left his countenance even when he lay in his coffin. It was an eighty-six-year smile—not the smile of inanimation, but of christian courage and of christian hope. At the other end of the table was a beautiful, benignant, hardworking mother. She was very tired. I am glad she had so good a place to rest in. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord; they rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

Rich Western Cities.

"Probably the richest city for its size in the world is Cheyenne City, Wyo., the home of the cattle kings," said Charles Jennings, a Western man from that Territory. "The population of the city is only about five thousand and it has about two hundred and fifty business houses, counting the cattle companys' offices, which number sixty-six."

"How much money is there invested in cattle in Cheyenne City?" asked the reporter.

"To my knowledge there is $32,500,000 in that branch of business alone."

"All American, I suppose?"

"No, a great deal of that amount is English investments. I know of at least $5,000,000 and there may be a great deal more I know nothing of. The Swan Land and Cattle Company's paid-in capital is £750,000, and then there is the Powder River Cattle Company, with a capital stock of $1,500,000, the Duke of Manchester being the chairman of the company, thus showing the large amount of stock held and controlled by English capitalists."

"How about other kinds of business?"

"Do you know it seems to me that there is not a poor person in the whole town. If there is, there are very few. There is about as much invested in other kinds of business as there is in cattle-raising, thus making a town of 5,000 inhabitants worth $65,000,000, and where can you find another city of that size in the world as wealthy? The town has all the modern improvements, such as electric light, theatres, the same as large cities. Good-by stranger. If you want to become rich go there," was his parting words as he left to get aboard an Eastern train.

Big Prices at New York Hotels.

The amount of money spent in hotels in New York must be enormous. I was chatting with a well-posted hotel man who was telling me about the prices paid by some of the guests. "The Hoffman House said he, "has a guest who pays $115 a week for his rooms, or over $16 a day—Admiral Maxse, of the English Navy. His service and meals are extra and must bring his bill well up to $200 a week for himself alone. John W. Mackay pays $100 a week for rooms at the Hoffman. When James McHenry, the London railroad man, was over here on New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio business, he paid $50 a day for a suit of rooms with private service and table at the Victoria Hotel. It was the suite of rooms that President Cleveland occupied when he held his famous Victoria hotel conference, to get acquainted with the prominent democrats of the country. There is a Mr. Dean at the Fifth avenue hotel, whose bills are about $80 a day. He is a retired Californian and has a family and several servants. He has been there all winter. The Windsor frequently has guests who require service amounting to $50 or $60 a day. Madame Barrios, the widow of the Central American warrior, was one of the heaviest paying guests a New York hotel has ever known. She stopped at the Langham, where her numerous family and large retinue of servants brought her daily expenses up to at least $200."—New York Tribune.

To Cure a Stoop.

A stooping figure is not only a familiar expression of weakness or old age, but it is, when caused by careless habits, a direct cause of contracted chest and defective breathing. Unless you rid yourself of this crook while at school you will probably go bent to the grave. There is one good way to cure it. Shoulder braces will not help. One needs not an artificial substitute, but some means to develop the muscles whose duty it is to hold the head and shoulders erect. I know of but one bull's eye shot. It is to carry a weight on the head. A sheep-skin or other strong bag filled with twenty or thirty pounds of sand is a good weight. When engaged in your morning studies, either before or after breakfast, put the bag of sand on your head, hold your head erect, draw your chin closely to your neck, and walk slowly about the room, coming back, if you please, every minute or two to your book, or carrying the book as you walk. The muscles whose duty it is to hold the head and shoulders erect are hit, not with scattering shot, but with a rifle ball. The bones of the spine and the intervertebral substances will soon accommodate themselves to the new attitude. One year of daily practice with the bag, half an hour morning and evening, will give you a noble carriage without interfering a moment with your studies.—Hall's Journal of Health.

How Hands May be Kept Soft and White.

A woman whose pretty hands are being ruined by washing in hard water writes to ask a remedy. Water can be easily softened with a few drops of ammonia, or what is better, a small piece of lump borax. Warm water, into which enough borax has been dissolved to make the water feel a little slippery when pressed between the thumb and finger, is very good for washing the hands. Hands kept dirty are never smooth and white. Absolute cleanliness is necessary. Many people who do not work wash their hands but seldom. The day's accumulation of dirt is allowed to remain on the hands all night. Upon rising the hands are washed in cold water. The possessor wonders why, when she does not work, her hands do not look any better, it as well, as her chambermaid's. The hands should always be washed in warm soapsuds before going to bed. White soaps are safest. Highly scented and colored soaps are almost invariably made of rancid and ill-smelling fats. After the hands are thoroughly dried, use a few drops of glycerine and camphor, which the druggist can prepare for you. Drop into the palm of the hand and rub on the hands. This will be all that is necessary to show a decided improvement.—Good Housekeeping.

"Papa," said the daughter of a large employer of labor, "are you in favor of the eight-hour system?" "Well, daughter," he answered; "under certain circumstances I am. Why, my dear, why are you so interested?" "Oh, I'm so glad!" she rapturously exclaimed, "because papa, George has been only staying four hours every evening, and he told me the other night if you favored the eight-hour system he needn't go home near so early. You dear old papa, I'm so glad you are in favor of it," and she threw her soft white arms about his neck and choked off all the explanations.

A Philadelphia Lawyer

Prominent in his profession, says: "Don't put my name in print but refer any one you wish to me, and I will gladly tell what the Russian Rheumatism Cure has done for me."

This gentleman was so lame one would have thought him a cripple, and yet Three Days' use of our remedy straightened him out all right.

MR. G. W. BAKER, a leading manufacturer of Wilmington, Del., writes Dec. 11th, '85: "From the first day I began to use the Russian Rheumatism Cure, relief followed and my comfort daily increased. The use of my limbs became more and more natural until I felt no discomfort either walking or working. I know of nothing which has so quick and wondrous an effect."

One of Philadelphia's oldest merchants, MR. C. G. BOCKIUS, residing 645 Main Street, Germantown, says: "The Russian Rheumatism Cure has taken all the pain out of my daughter's arm and neck. She had suffered greatly with it for months."

We have testimony of this sort sufficient to satisfy the most skeptical. But if you have the Rheumatism you want relief rather than testimony. You can get it—quick, sure, permanent, by sending for the

No Boiling, No Scalding Of Clothes.

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP

FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.

Ask Your Grocer For It.

NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.
WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' OR ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
