In the course of the ensuing summer I expect to find others whose names may be added and if appearances warrant the measure, proceedings of some efficiency may be gone into.

If there be found at Port Deposit or West Nottingham a greater or more genuine zeal in behalf of the good cause, the society for the county may take its rise at one of those places, of which it may be in my power to advise you in my next letter. — I have not yet conferred with Mr. John C. Cazier, but expect to, soon.

Very respectfully
Yr Obt Sr
