Cuddles Cross Roads, Queen's Co.
April 19th 1837 —

Franklin Anderson Esq.,
Sir

I am directed by the Board of Managers of the State of Md. Colony: Society of Queen Anne County, to say to the Board in Baltimore City, that Robert Rollins Cold. of this neighborhood still continues firm to his promises to Mr Hennard agt. for Colo: Soc'y. to emigrate to Africa, in good next May Expedition, in the event that his debts be paid. We have, in accordance with Mr. Hennard's suggestion, stated to him that his debts would be paid by the Board in Balto. and have urged him to make immediately his arrangements. He will certainly go as an emigrant and I am happy to say that he will be a great acquisition to our infant Colony at Cape Palmas. He is a first rate blacksmith of steady and moral habits —
