Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING.........JUNE 19, 1886.

Wifely Solicitude.

A fashionable New York lady has a pet parrot of which she is very fond. She has also a husband of whom she is not very fond. A few days ago her husband was trifling with the parrot, when he suddenly cried out in anguish, danced around the room, holding his fingers in his mouth, removing them from time to time so that he could use his mouth for other purposes.

"Good gracious! what's the matter, Charles?" asked his wife.

"That blank parrot!" ejaculated the suffering man.

"I hope you haven't hurt the dear bird?"

"No; but the dear bird has bit a piece out of my finger."

"Great goodness! I hope it didn't bite it clear out?"

"Yes, it did."

"I wish you would be more careful, Charles. The man I bought that bird from told me not to let it taste meat under any circumstances. Poor Polly! Polly want a cracker?"

The Profits in Farming.

Profit in farming consists in devoting most of your land to grass and stock; in making large quantities of manure, and applying it to a small portion of cultivated land, giving high cultivation. In this way more grain, roots, etc., will be raised one year with another than can be raised on the whole farm by the usual skimming and half cultivating process. Here is success in a nut-shell; your farm and pocket will grow fat; no mistake about it!

Profit in stock-raising comes from giving the best care and shelter with full feed from the beginning. In breeding use only thoroughbred males; half-breeds produce only mongrels and scrubs. One pound of sulphur to twenty pounds of salt will prevent disease, and keep your animals healthy. Always salt the hay in the mow. One is apt to neglect giving salt in the winter. Add sulphur, as it prevents hay from molding and keeps it sweet.

Quick Sales and Small Profits.

A man afflicted with deafness took a prescription to a Topeka druggist, who filled it with care and in the latest style. The deaf man asked the price, when the following talk occurred:

Druggist (leaning on the counter and smiling in a wont-you-please-pay-up manner)—"The price is seventy-five cents."

Deaf customer—"Five cents? Here it is."

Druggist (in a very loud voice and firm manner)—"I said seventy-five cents."

Deaf Customer—"Well there's your five cts."

Druggist (in a louder voice)—"Seventy-five cents please."

Deaf customer (getting angry)—"Well, what more do you want? I just gave you five cents."

Druggist (sotto voce)—"Well go to thunder with your medicine! I made three cents, anyway."—Drug Record.

They Always Come.

The manner of calling swine is as varied as the number of States. The Pennsylvanian requests the presence of his swine with "Pig, pig, pig-gie, pig-gie." The North Carolinian halloos, "Pig i, pig i," dwelling on the "i" each time. The Hoosier calls, "Whoo-ee, whoo-ee," and his pigs come on the jump from every direction. A Buckeye farmer reasons with his big, easy-going, well-fed porker, and coaxingly cries, "Soo, soo, soo, soo." The Kentucky farmer causes the hills to reverbrate with his heavy bass voice, "Poohe, poohe." A Dakotian brings his pigs with a shrill whistle. And thus each State has its own peculiar manner of calling the swine.

Some Oddities of the Atmosphere.

If it were possible to rise above the atmosphere which surrounds the earth we should see nothing but an intense and sharply-defined ball of fire, while everything else would be wrapped in total darkness. There could be no diffusion of light without an atmosphere, or some similar medium for it to act upon; but if the air about us extended to a height of seven hundred miles, the rays of the sun could not penetrate it, and we should be left in darkness. At the depth of seven hundred feet in the ocean the light ceases altogether, one-half of the light being absorbed in passing through only seven feet of the purest water.—Science.

Not so Awkward with the Gun.

A husband who had been out shooting, but had not been successful, rather than return home empty-handed stepped into a shop and purchased a hare.

"There my ducky," he said to his wife upon reaching home, "you see I am not so awkward with the gun, after all."

"Let me see."

"Isn't he a fine fellow?"

"My dear," said the wife, as she carried the animal to her nostrils and put it down with a grimace, "you were quite right in killing him today; tomorrow it would have been too late."

A Connecticut Opinion.

From the Hartford Post.

"I say, Si," muttered Rube Rations, "d'ye know I think Grover's took a wrong step?"

Si Slipshod changed his position a little out of the draft and quizzically inquired: "Why does yer think so, Rube?"

"His luck'll change. Mine did the very day I tied up to a woman."

"Mebbe so; but I allers thought that the woman wuz tied to you."

"That's just what's the matter down ter the White House."

THIS is from Texas Siftings: "The doctor said he'd put me on my feet again in two weeks." "Well, didn't he do it?" "He did, indeed. I had to sell my horse and buggy to foot his bill."

"WHAT kind of a dog is that my little man?" "He's a part terrier." "And what's the other part?" "Oh, just dog."

DON'T forget this, my boy: There are ten thousand ways to miss the bull's eye and only one way to hit it.

WHAT a man can't prove never ruined any one yet; it is what he can prove that makes it hot for him.

WHEN a man has not a good reason for doing a thing, he has one good reason for letting it alone.

GENUINE MERIT IS SURE TO WIN.

We believe the RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE has real, genuine merit. It is this faith which has led us to put our money into it so liberally. We have put more into it than money—money could not buy the fair name we have gained by twenty years of honorable business dealing right here on Market St., Philadelphia, and yet so great is our faith in the Russian Rheumatism Cure that we are willing to stake our reputation on it as a safe, speedy and permanent cure for all Rheumatic troubles. Could we offer any better guaranty of good faith? Others besides ourselves have tested its merits, and add their hearty and unequivocal endorsement.

We send to all who ask it a pamphlet containing much of such testimony. And yet if you have Rheumatism why suffer one day longer than is necessary. It costs only $2.50 to be cured, and while you are making up your mind to try it you might be made well. The has saved every Rheumatic sufferer who has given it a fair trial. It is for you to decide whether or not it shall cure you.

Price $2.50. If mailed, 10c. additional. If registered, 10c. more.

One box does the business. RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE. None Genuine without this Trade-Mark.

As yet it is not to be found at the stores, but can only be had by enclosing the amount as above, and addressing the American proprietors,

No Boiling, No Scalding Of Clothes.

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP

FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.

Ask Your Grocer For It.

NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.
WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' OR ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
