Elkton May 13th 1837.

Dear Sir:

I send herewith letters as follows:
from Wisley Henderson Esq. to David James in reply to the one received from David James from Wm Wright and John Howard (men of color)
and myself to S. G.
from Henry Pratts Corse to Allen Pratts &
Ezekiel Harrington.

Please acknowledge the receipt of these and state if the ship will wait longer than the 15th or when she will sail, for the chance of emigrants or more letters.

Mr John C. Cazier is acting with zeal and effect in this county in aid of the good cause.

Seal those letters after you peruse

Respectfully
Y. U.
