Colonization Journal
Baltimore 29th June 1837

I reached this City this morning at 3 O'clock from Chester Town, which place I ~~visited~~ left yesterday morning at 9. all the tour of the Eastern Shore is completed and I hasten to lay before the Committee the result of my labours.

Diary

Thursday afternoon. left Vienna Dorchester County and proceeded to Mr Thomas Hayward's distant six miles. Mr H. is a decided one in many respects Consistent Colonizationist. has the importance understand the means to be employed. but pains the objects cannot be attained. will do all he can to aid in its accomplishment. Mr Mr H. met with Revd Mr Rath of Methodist E Church, one of the Circuit Preachers. ~~Mr~~ Mr Brannan & Mr Mr he can toward promoting emigrants, is decidedly Colonization in his views & feelings.

Left Mr Hayward's on Friday afternoon in company with Revd Mr Rath and proceeded to Mr Thomas at East New Market ~~Dorchester County~~. Mr T is a member of the M. E. Church, a firm friend of our Cause, and will aid and promote emigrants. Left E. Evans Dentist, Jan a Colored man, whose Father is Dentist, talking of going to Cape Palmas in the Fall, and promised to use his influence to induce his friends to join him. Dentist is a first rate man. Intelligent industrious, enterprising and pious; but a blacksmith. I have seen him and by Revd Mr Sigler of Protestant E Church, that he
