Cambridge July 18th 1837.

My Dear Sir. Yours of the 11th Inst. came duly to hand and I must return you my acknowledgements for the manner in which you have presented me to the Friends of Colonization, I only wish you may find your Opinion realized. but I fear you will not yet. I am willing to do what I can to promote a cause in which I feel great interest. Therefore as you and my friends have thought best to put me at the head of the society in this County. I feel determined not to take the course of my predecessors. who have not done any thing - last Monday afternoon I held a meeting in the lower part of the county for the purpose of telling the Colored people some thing about the object of the society. We had a large assemblage of Black & White. And after I was done addressing them, I called for any who had made up their mind to go to give me their names. And two came forward & said they would go. live or die - I purpose holding like meeting through the other parts of the County. And should like to receive any information from you which you may think proper to give - I wish to know of you and the board. whether we may give