Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING..........SEPT. 11 1886.

LIBERAL CONTRIBUTIONS are being made from all sections of the country to relieve the Charleston sufferers. Truly there is no North, no South, no East, no West in this goodly land when a great calamity befalls any community. A sympathetic throb pulsates the common heart and life-giving aid flows out from every quarter. Among the notable gifts may be mentioned $5,000 from W. W. Corcoran, of Washington, $1,000 from A. S. Abell & Co., of the Baltimore Sun, Robert Garrett & Sons, $3,000 and large sums from all the principal cities. About $200,000 had already been received and it is expected the amount of contributions will soon reach a half million dollars. It is believed that $25,000 will be raised in Baltimore by the end of the present week.

REPUBLICAN POLITICS—The First District Congressional Convention.—The Baltimore American correspondent writes from Denton as follows under date of Sept. 7:

"Mr. George M. Russum, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the congressional nomination in opposition to Mr. Gibson, and strongly advocated by several newspaper writers, said tonight that he was not seeking the nomination, and preferred that the honor should fall on some one else this time. He mentioned as available men Charles T. Westcott and Samuel Mallalieu, Esqs., and Hon. Wm. D. Burchinal, of Kent; Col. James C. Mullikin, Hon. J. Davis Clark, Fred Thorp, Esq., and Col. Charles E. Shannahan, of Talbot; Col. James Wallace and James Wallace, Jr., and James W. Waddell, Esqs., of Dorchester; Col. Samuel H. Graham, of Wicomico, and Hon. Thomas S. Hodson, of Somerset. The last campaign entailed an expense of about $750, Mr. Russum stated, only $200 of which was borne by the State committee. The canvass involved great loss in his professional business, and he would, therefore, make no effort to secure the prize. He expressed a belief that the Republican chances of success were very much improved, owing to contention incident to the distribution of offices by the party in power, and also to the fact that in the lower counties the prohibition vote would draw more from the democratic ranks than from the republicans. No prohibition ticket interfered in 1884. "However," said the astute attorney, 'if no one else will have the nomination, I will accept it myself sooner than see a want of organization for the fall campaign. I am not a high-tide politician.' "

The American heads the above article "Mr. Russum should have it." If it will be any gratification to him he can get it no doubt, as neither of the other gentlemen named desire the honor.

CHARLESTON EARTHQUAKE NOTES.—On the first page of the NEWS we give some interesting particulars of the earthquake reported last week. Several slight shocks have been felt since the great upheaval of Aug. 31, and some of the incidents reported from Charleston would be amusing were they not so serious. The Baltimore Sun correspondent under date of Sept. 5 writes:

Your correspondent was one of twenty-five or thirty strangers sitting and standing, talking and smoking in the Charleston Hotel business office when the shock of Friday night came. Some newly-arrived people had their gripsacks and other belongings in hand and were negotiating with the hotel clerk for quarters. Several newspaper writers were engaged at their work in the writing-room near by, and there were half a dozen thirsty people getting drinks at the hotel bar. The shocks came and went as quickly as a flash of lightning in the sky; but quick as it was, it had not ceased before nearly every man in the crowd, including some who were old and limping, were out into the middle of the street! The agile young hotel clerk sprang over his marble counter and left a handful of money which some parting guests had just paid. Two venerable colored porters dropped the gripsacks which they were carrying and joined in the stampede. When the thing was over the stampeders looked sheepish as they returned, but there was no cause for shame to any of them. The few who remained were not less frightened because they did not catch on to the panic; they simply knew it was safer to stand than to run out and be overwhelmed by the top stories, which would be the first to come down, of course, if the shock was violent enough to disturb the equilibrium of the building.

KILLED BY COAL GAS—Sad End of a Young Married Couple.—The following is not only a sad incident but a salutary warning of the danger of gas from coal stoves. It is reported from Chicago Sept. 9:

John Enright and his wife were found dead in their bed today. They were married last Sunday. They had just started at housekeeping on a small scale, having moved into two little rooms immediately after their marriage, both young. Yesterday they did not appear, and today it led to an examination of the premises, and the doors were found locked. The officers at once broke open the door. The sight that met their gaze was a sad one. On the bed was the unfortunate couple, their bodies purple from decomposition, which plainly showed that they had been dead at least twenty-four hours. A hasty examination of the bodies showed no marks of violence, but the lid of the stove partly removed showed what is thought to have been the cause of their death. It is remembered by the guests of Monday evening that a fire was burning in the cook stove. When the couple retired, they either removed a lid to allow the fire to cool off, or an accumulation of gas caused a slight explosion and jarred the lid from its place, allowing the room to fill with the deadly gas. The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that the deceased persons came to their death from suffocation, caused by an accidental escape of coal gas from the stove.

WHAT A FALL!—The Centreville Observer reports the arrest of Marion Dawson on the charge of assaulting Mrs. M. A. White on Wye Island last week. Ten or twelve years ago Marion Dawson was one of the leading merchants of Centreville. He began drinking, lost his property and finally left the county. He returned a short time since, a wreck of his former self, and began canvassing the county. He has been looked upon as a harmless fellow whose worst fault was an unconquerable love for intoxicants.

PEACH SHIPMENTS.—The shipments of peaches over the Delaware Railroad have averaged fully thirty per cent. less than last year. Up to September 4th, 1885, 2,535 car-loads had been shipped, while this year but 1,790 car-loads have been sent over the same route. So that it would appear that it has not been the quantity of fruit from the peninsula that has glutted the Northern and Western markets.

A GIRL'S STRANGE SLEEP.—A daughter, fourteen years old, of David Fry, at Stumptown, Loudon county, Virginia, was taken sick and slept sixty-six hours in succession, and when the awoke she was lively and ate heartily. She then went to sleep again, and up to this hour has slept ninety-eight hours without intermission. The cause is not known.

A LITTLE child of Rev. S. A. Hoblitzell came across a phial of creosote in the servants' room at the parsonage, and turning the bottle over the liquid ran down one arm from the shoulder, burning the flesh severely.—Belair Times.

THE reduced rates at the "Maltby House," Baltimore, show that it is alive to the requirements of the times, and determined to give its patrons full value of their money.

SAMUEL AUSTIN, Jr., of Fieldsborough, Del., states: "My crop of this year was the largest I ever raised, and was produced by the use of Diamond State Fertilizer." tf.

BALTIMORE MARKET.—The Baltimore papers of yesterday quote as follows: WHEAT—Longberry 87c.@90c.; Fultz, 87c. @87c. for fair to good. CORN—White, prime, 50@51; yellow, 51@OATS—32.

(From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.)

At first view such a phenomenon as Blind Tom might seem one of the most humiliating facts to the musical world that can possibly be conceived. His uncouth appearance, his queer antics on the platform are hardly like the actions of a human being at all, and yet this half-idiot looking person has powers as a musical performer, such probably as no one has ever attained by any amount of art or practice. Many professors of great eminence have been ready after listening to him, to declare that they would never touch the piano again. What he has done in public in the way of playing the most difficult pieces after hearing them but once, and with a perfection that years of practice could not usually apply, are known to all lovers of music. His clappings at his own performances, and glee at each new feat, now show the simplicity of his nature. But his performances in music show the highest results of art and study are not easily reached by this peculiar being in his one-sided culture—that of the ear alone. The science of music he will probably never be able to understand. But we remember that the art of it preceded the science in Egypt, in Palestine, in Greece and in Rome by long ages. It was the music of the Hebrews, and then of the christian church that gave birth to scientific music, and alone developed it, until that of the opera gave rise to a distinct branch of the culture.

We Desire to Call the Thoughtful Attention of Farmers
TO THE SUPERIOR MERITS OF

ORCHILLA GUANO

AS A FERTILIZER FOR

WHEAT AND GRASS.

The advantages resulting from its use are not only an increased yield, but the permanent improvement of the soil from the abundant growth of grass which is sure to follow.

"ORCHILLA" is no new thing. For twenty-one years it has been undergoing trial,—and well has it stood the test. At first, its progress to favor was naturally slow; but merit will, sooner or later, have its reward, and now its sales every year are largely increased over those of the preceding year, and the friends of its early days are its best friends now.

It has been used extensively in Maryland and the adjoining States, and from its abundant success everywhere we are justified in recommending it to you as being well adapted to your soils. No fertilizer for your use has had such unvarying success and continued popularity. Some of the largest and best farmers in these States use it almost exclusively.

It is Successful, because it is Nature's own provision for the exhausted fields.

It is Low Priced, because we have none of the expense of manufacturers, and, without regard to its high commercial value, we base its price solely upon its actual cost to import.

We refer you below to some of the farmers who have used it and ask you to enquire of them its merits.

R. A. WOOLDRIDGE & CO., Importers,
64 BUCHANAN'S WHARF, Baltimore.

DAVID R. DERRICKSON, Edesville, Kent Co., Md., July 1st, 1886, says:—I used Orchilla Guano on my young peach orchard in the spring of 1884, and planted the land in corn. The guano gave me a good crop of corn, and its effect was very prominently marked on the trees.

HON. THOMAS A. HULME, Fairlee, Kent Co., Md., July 1st, 1886, says:—I used Orchilla Guano in 1883 on corn. The guano was put on in April, 400 lbs. per acre. I could not see any marked effect of it on the corn, but the next year I put the land in peach trees, and the effect was very decidedly shown in the healthy and vigorous appearance of the orchard—which has continued ever since. I afterwards used Orchilla in the drill for potatoes with the most satisfactory results.

WM. I. BURGESS, Chesterville, Kent Co., Md., June 30th, 1886, says:—I used Orchilla Guano in 1883 on wheat, and it did me good service on that crop, as well as on the grass crop that followed, which was as good as ever grew on the farm.

J. EDWARD HURLOCK, Chesterville, Kent Co., Md., June 30th, 1886, says:—I used Orchilla Guano in 1884 on wheat alongside of Hubbard's Phosphate. In the early spring the latter was ahead, but at harvest I could see no difference at all. The stand of grass from Orchilla was an excellent one. The land on which Orchilla was put was very thin. I applied about 400 lbs. per acre, broadcast.

DANIEL R. NEALL, Chesterville, Kent Co., Md., June 30th, 1886, says:—I used Orchilla Guano on corn in 1884. It was put on in February and plowed down. The season was a very dry one, but I had as good a crop as any of my neighbors had from other fertilizers. The land was put in wheat and made a good yield, and the grass that followed was a first-class stand. I would say that the land where Orchilla went was exceedingly poor. I believe it to be a good fertilizer, especially to improve the land

WM. P. CROSBY, Fairlee, Kent Co., Md., July 2d, 1886, says:—I applied Orchilla Guano in the spring of 1884—on land for corn, 400 lbs. per acre—broadcast. I got no marked result in the corn, but the effect of the guano was very distinctly shown in the wheat crop that followed.

WM. S. GOSLIN, Federalsburg, Caroline Co., Md., wrote January 15, 1886:—Two years ago I seeded one of my fields, containing 18 acres, in wheat, followed with clover. On 12 acres as an experiment, I used Lime and Orchilla Guano both; on the other 6, the poorest part of the field, I applied Orchilla alone. I had a good crop of wheat. On the 20th of June I commenced mowing my clover. The superiority of the clover on the 6 acres attracted the attention of all who saw it. I shelled 16 bushels of clover seed from the 6 acres, and only had 25 bushels from the 12 acres! I shall use Orchilla by itself hereafter. I have had 17 years' experience in the use of Orchilla Guano, and I unhesitatingly say, that for good results and the permanent improvement of the soil, it has no equal.

J. M. ANDERSON, Providence-Mill, Cecil Co., Md., writes, July 30, 1885:—I have used Orchilla Guano on wheat, side by side with Bone; and find it produces equally as well as the Bone. The cost being in favor of Orchilla.

JOHN E. WILSON, attorney-at-law, Elkton, Cecil Co., Md., wrote Oct. 7, 1885:—I used Orchilla, 200 lbs. per acre, on 7 acres of land this fall and put it on buckwheat. It was on land that never would raise anything before. I have never seen a finer crop of buckwheat grown from any land. Manure or any phosphate formerly used on the land was of no avail. I estimate a yield of no less than 200 bushels from 7 acres. I left out a strip in seeding, on which I put a mixture of different kinds of phosphate, but got no buckwheat except where Orchilla went. I have used Orchilla all over my wheat this fall, and shall also use it on land for corn next spring.

MR. WILSON writes now, July 22, 1886:—The wheat on which I used Orchilla, 500 lbs. to the acre, was as good as that produced by a high grade phosphate; and a better stand of grass I never saw. Where I used the Orchilla on corn this spring, I can see to a foot where I applied it; and the corn there is better than where I applied barn-yard manure heavily beside it. I consider Orchilla Guano better than barn-yard manure for corn and grass, and equal to it or any other phosphate for wheat.

JOHN T. GAMBLE, Bayview, Cecil Co., Md., July 22, 1886, says:—I have used Orchilla Guano to advantage on wheat, on which I consider its action quite as good as bone. For grass Orchilla is unexcelled by any fertilizer I know of.

THOS. N. WARBURTON, Bayview, Cecil Co., Md., writes July 12, 1886:—Orchilla Guano has been used upwards of ten years on the farm of my father, (now deceased,) where I have always lived, and now live—and always with the best results on the various crops to which it was applied, and with large and continued increase of the grass crop following, and this may now be seen on the place.

WM. T. MILLER, Elkton, Cecil Co., Md., writes July 20, 1886:—I do unhesitatingly endorse and recommend Orchilla Guano as a fertilizer. It has always improved my wheat crop greatly, and the grass following is always remarkably excellent. I shall want my supply this fall.

CHARLES H. OWENS, Elkton, Cecil Co., Md., writes July 4, 1885:—I have used Orchilla Guano for several years, and meantime have used other fertilizer phosphates, and find the Orchilla equally as good for grain crops, and far more productive for grass; and for permanent improvement of land, the best.

JOHN WHITE, Mechanics' Valley, Cecil Co., Md., July 10, 1886, writes:—I confidently recommend Orchilla Guano as a good and permanent fertilizer, it having produced for me excellent crops of grain and grass. I think it fully equal to bone.

JOHN T. GALLAHER, Elkton, Cecil Co., Md., writes, July 12, 1885:—I have used Orchilla Guano, year after year, for several years, and have always found it beneficial to the crops, both of corn and wheat, and therefore recommend it as a reliable fertilizer for grain and for grass as well, and at less cost than most fertilizers.
