Rev. and dear Sir,

I have learned from our mutual friend, Mr. Cresson, that he accidentally found at the office of Col: Long, a letter from yourself requesting a copy of my Plea for Africa, which he understood upon enquiring had not been forwarded to you. Mr. C. being absent from the city when the letter was rec^d, and knowing nothing of it until some time after, begs me to say that he regrets the seeming neglect, and wishes me to offer this apology; he having sought in vain for a private opportunity of sending a copy previous to his more recent absence from the city. I take pleasure in sending, agreeably to his suggestion, a copy of the second edition, the first being exhausted. Mr. Cresson, in common with other strong friends of the cause, thinks the book has been productive of much benefit to Colonization in diffusing information when it was needed, and strengthening those who needed confirming, as also in dissipating the
