Shall we Individually drink at that disma fountain of Vice one after the other untill we all drown Collectively to the disgrace of your Highest Philanthropsiy?
O! the hearts of our community begins th awful pull towards our downfall.

What must we say who have no inclinatio to Honest, no tonii of Character. Down with the Colony? no sirs We Humbly hail to yo crop the Atlantic and declare in behalf of the majority of this Colony a Solomn Protest against the proceedings of Jam M Thomson. we also pray that the Hon.
Board will take some steps in this matter as we suppose it to be noised abroad before this time.

We as a Committe feel it our duty to state that Dr Thomas S Savage spared no pains in giving us such information, and explanation to different queries as was put to him by the Committe, which led to the truth of the afair of his (Jmes M Thomson) Cohabeting with the natu woman Rebookah (and the girl Sally for wh he was not tried)

We understand that several letter with the Proceedings of the trial will be sent by the ~~Board~~ Agent to the Board also that Dr Savage will send you letters as well as an account of the trial, and you will have a fear oppertunity of judging the matter closely as it will be from the mouth of their witnesses

With the unanimous consent of the Committe a meeting of the Citizens is requested on Saturday 2nd Dec 1837 at which time the Committe beg leave to submit the above Documents to their consideration of the Citizens hoping that our little effort will meet with
