Rev. Ira Easton

New York 25th Jul 1837

Sir

The times are such that I will not be able to send the Packet Ship Emperor to Liberia Africa befor the last of October or perhaps November as I did intend. and thinking that you would have some Emigrants or Freight (which I will take at the lowest average rate) induces me to address you, perhaps the the N. York Colonization Society may get up an expedition by that time

Respectfully Your

H V Garretson

P.S. It may be that I could, so well in the purchase of part of the Cargo in Baltimore, ~~that~~ in that case I should I will have to come there

P.S. I mention to Mr Anderson that would try to meet your Views ~~[illegible]~~
