Gen'l Post Roads Mo. Sept 1st 1837.

Sir, Upon every sent publication comes to this office regularly, but of late few Nos are taken out — no only, all are refused. Those to whom they are directed do not understand that they are chargeable to subscription. Is it so understood by you? If it were gratis I think it probable they would be acceptable. There to some as G. S. Parsons, Johnathan Pasin, John Hubbard, S. Wilmer, R. Pasin, R. Moffett, S. Jameson, S. Foreman, E. Hubbard, and Wm. Parson in fact these are but two — J. E. Gooding and G. Lacy who will be likely to take them out. — My duty, I believe, is performed, any communication on the subject will be replied to.

Resp yours

J. J. Dunbar.
