Calvert County Sept. 11th 1837

Sir

Agreeable to request I now write you respecting my children, I have seen Mr. Somerville the owner and he has agreed to let me have my children for one thousand dollars including a note of mine which he holds (on the purchase of my children now in africa) amounting to one hundred and six dollars with interest for three years - which make one hundred twenty five dollars and eight cents. deducted from the one thousand dollars leave a ballance which I have to pay for my children now in his (Mr. Somerville's) possession. of eight hundred seventy four dollars and ninety two cents, there are three children the oldest is about fourteen years of age, the second about twelve and the third about nine or ten,

I have not been able since I have been in the County to attend more than one large meeting. and from what I saw and heard
