thence me at an early date as possible upon the receipt of your letter he will return immediately to Baltimore Mr Hance requested me to say to you that there has several of his acquaintances has promised him to go out with him this fall, and untill he receives an answer from you he will continue to visit the free people both in this County and in Prince Georges and use every means to induce them to emigrate with him: I must be leave to say in behalf of Mr Alexander Hance that I have known him from a child he has always been a good character both for truth and industry. Having hired him a year or two before he left here in my employ working on my farm and I feel certain he will make a valuable citizen in the Colony where he now resides
