Rev J. A. Easter, Home Agent &c.

Rev & Dear Sir.

Your favor of Sept 9, furnishing information concerning which I had written to W. H. Murray Esq was duly received. I had to wait for the action of the Foreign Committee before I could transmit the order. A meeting was held last evening, when the following resolution was past.

Resolved that the Assistant Secretary be instructed to write forthwith to the Rev J. A. Easter, Home Agent &c requesting him to purchase the goods in the list below, and transmit them to Cape Palmas, accounting for the cost and all charges on the same with the Treasurer of this Committee."

The following are what the committee wish to send.

6.000 feet of lumber. The different kinds of lumber are not specified, but the whole is needed for the second mission house, and it is presumed your experience in regard to the lumber generally sent to the African Coast will be sufficient to guide you in the
