Kent News.

SATURDAY MORNING..........Nov. 6, 1886.

Directions for Patients.

A physician of our acquaintance has the following printed on cards for benefit of his patients and leaves one with them when needed, instead of repeating the directions, which are often forgotten as soon as heard. They are excellent.

DIET LIST FOR ONE MUCH RUN DOWN IN HEALTH.

Eat three meals a day at about 7 o'clock, 12 and 6.

Drink at least a quart of milk a day. This may be sweet milk, or buttermilk if preferred. Take a glassful after each meal, drinking it slowly by swallows, not in big gulps.

Make a good soup of bones, scraps of meat, etc., season to the taste with salt and red pepper pods, and skim off the fat. Eat a bowlful of this, hot, at about ten o'clock morning and four o'clock afternoon.

At meals eat fresh meat, best to be roasted, broiled or stewed—no salt meat, nor salt fish.

Eat freely of fresh fish and oysters, but do not have them fried; also eat poultry, green vegetables, and fruit raw or stewed.

Eat eggs soft boiled or poached, not fried.

Drink little or no tea or coffee, but take a cup of cocoa made with milk first thing in morning.

Lie in bed as late as possible in the morning. Lie down a half hour after each meal.

Improvement of the National Capital.

The movement to organize a citizens' association at Washington for the promotion of public enterprises and schemes of improvement is one which will commend itself to the approval not only of all intelligent and public-minded citizens of that beautiful city, but also of the people of the entire country, who naturally take a lively interest in the development of their national capital. Among the special objects which are sought to be promoted are the reclamation of the Potomac flats, the laying out of the proposed Rock Creek Park, the establishment at Washington of a national university, the improvement of the channel of the Potomac, the construction of a railroad to Mount Vernon, the erection of a new executive mansion, the organizing of an exposition of the three Americas, and, in general, the promotion of efforts by the District commissioner and others for the development of the Capital. The movement can scarcely fail to be of great benefit in directing and concentrating local energy in this direction, and in aiding congress to legislate intelligently for the District of Columbia.

What the Local Paper Does.

Every year every local paper gives from 500 to 5,000 free lines for the sole benefit of the community in which it is located. No other agency can or will do this. The local editor in proportion to his means does more for his town than any other ten men, and in all fairness, man with man, he ought to be supported, not because you may happen to like him, or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be brilliant or crowded with more thoughts, but it is financially of more benefit to a community than the preacher or teacher. Understand us now, we do not mean morally or intellectually, but financially, and yet on the moral question you will find the majority of the local papers are on the right side of the question. Today the local editors do the most work for the least money of any men on earth. Subscribe for your local paper, not as a charity, but as an investment.—David Davis.

Lamont's Influence.

The secret of Col. Lamont's influence with the President, says a Washington correspondent, lies largely in his honesty and loyalty. He is the only member of the administration family who is heart and soul for Mr. Cleveland as against anyone else. He has no personal ambitions rivaling those of his chief. He is discreet, reserved, secretive and untiring in his capacity for work. He is in every sense of the word the President's right hand. More than that the colonel looks specially after the Mugwumps. It is he who keeps their interests constantly in view and who is always on the alert to keep them in line with the administration. Surrounded as Cleveland is by the ambitious and the indifferent it is not to be wondered that he rests so much upon his slight-figured private secretary. His loyalty and Cleveland's appreciation makes up one of the most interesting stories I have ever heard about the administration.

A New Electric Patent.

A patent has been issued to George Westinghouse, Jr., of Pittsburg, Pa., the inventor of the Westinghouse air brake, for a new system of distributing electricity to be used in lighting and other purposes, a system which, it is said, will greatly cheapen the electric light, and render it a more dangerous rival of the illuminating gas than it ever has become. The new invention will, it is claimed, effect a saving of about 95 per cent. in the distributing main wires as compared with the Edison "three-wire system." In tests of the invention a single main circuit of wire less than one-quarter of an inch in diameter carried the current for 850 sixteen-candle-power incandescent lights all situated at a distance of three miles from the dynamo. The inventor claims that to light this number of lamps at an equal distance the Edison system would require from 90 to 100 wires of the same size.

The Lawyer the Best Man.

After a Delaware peach-grower had sold his crop to a speculator he was offered an advance of $500 by another. He wanted to be wiggled out of the first trade and went to his man and said: "I have been praying to the Lord in regard to that matter and have come to feel that divine providence demands that we cancel it." "Not by a jugful!" replied the other, "the Lord doesn't run the fruit market of Baltimore, and if you try to work around me I'll prove it mighty quick. A $10 lawyer can beat the Lord any day in Maryland." The old man concluded not to chance it.

THEY were sitting in the parlor and she was getting sleepy.

"What time is it?" she asked.

He looked at his watch and replied that it lacked five minutes of eleven, and then, being struck with an idea, he asked:

"Why is my watch like you?"

"I don't know."

"Because it is very pretty," he replied.

"And why is my watch like you?" she then asked.

"I don't know I'm sure."

"Because it won't go," she replied with a yawn.

The young man went.

FEEL a want before you provide against it. You are more assured that it is a want; and it is worth while to feel it a little in order to feel the relief from it.

My hands were swollen, my fingers stiff and the pain so intense that for seventeen nights I was unable to sleep. Doctors did me no good. I tried everything; nothing helped me. A friend suggested the Russian Rheumatism Cure. I tried it. Inside of one week I had full use of arm and hand, and have been well ever since."

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP

FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.

Ask Your Grocer For It.

NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.
WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' OR ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
