SATURDAY MORNING.........Nov. 13, 1886.

LETTER FROM ROCK HALL.

EDITORS KENT NEWS:—Your correspondent, "Occasional," in giving an account of what is going on around this improving place, forgot to mention that we have a coal-yard and scales for weighing coal, carts, wagons, horses, &c., so that every one can be sure of getting 2240 lbs. of coal for their ton. Capt. Apsley with his fine schooner Aurelia Francis runs coal during the interval between the dredging seasons and supplies the neighborhood, which is a great convenience to our townsmen.

The harbor, with its numerous boats at anchor, reminds one of a young Liverpool, as the owners and assistants have come home to spend Sunday with their wives, children and sweethearts, and occupy their pew listening to good advice from our pastor, who does not forget to remind his hearers of the blessings of virtue, truth, morality, and last, but not least, the blessing of temperance; for intemperance goes hand in hand with everything that is low and degrading, including murder, unhappy and miserable homes, with often an ending in the poorhouse and Potter's field, without a friend to shed a tear or regret their departure.

Our population, which is quite a numerous one, are now suffering from the great inconvenience of getting the mail now the short days and muddy roads are on hand, which forbids sending the children a mile for it. It is considered a great outrage removing the office from the village and many supporters of the administration refused to go near the polls at the recent election, and, as is known, reduced the usual majority to near a tie vote. Our worthy Assistant Postmaster-General surely could not have known the true state of the case or he would never have made the removal, especially as we have good democrats in the village who are competent and willing to run the office and no doubt would give entire satisfaction.

The oyster business so far has been rather a poor one for the tongmen, but a better market is hoped for, as the season has been too warm for the trade. Swan Point oysters are rapidly increasing in quantity and quality, and if it is possible to keep the dredgers off a fine prospect is ahead of the tongmen, so many of whom have their homes and family in the village; hence, bread and butter being an important consideration with them, they feel a deep interest in anything calculated to prevent another destruction of the bar by dredgers and coal-oil tar, which has ceased being discharged into the river.

The fishing this season has been a fair one and some good hauls have been made, but the pound-fishing seems to be taking the place of the old seine-hauling process.

Passing through Gray Town, the southern end of Rock Hall, several new houses are going up, and George Berryman has sold three lots and the lumber is on one of them for building. Denbeigh, on the north, is also filling up, and on the east end our young friend, Joe Judefind, is just completing a handsome cottage at the Chestertown road and Bayside avenue. On the west S. P. Sharp has recently built quite an annex to his barn for storing hay and horse-power for cutting feed. The Adams' windmill does all the pumping and grinding grain needed on the farm, keeping a constant supply of water night and day in front of the horses, which clearly proves "a horse well watered is half fed." This mill seems to work to perfection and today with a forty-mile wind presents no stoppage; so perfect does it accommodate itself to the wind, even a light wind does the pumping and grinding. In addition to the barn a hen-house fifty feet long and otherwise in proportion make quite a show and gives comfortable quarters to a large flock of chickens and hens.

Early in the spring we have a prospect of a stage line to Edesville and Tolchester, which will prove a great convenience to passengers to and from Baltimore, as well as accommodate the numerous drummers that almost daily visit here. Sometimes half a dozen teams a day drive down from Chestertown with the ever polite, smiling-face drummer from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, who find cash customers, some of our stores buying twenty-five to fifty barrels of flour at a clip.

Local option is proving a blessing in this neighborhood, and there has been a talk about erecting a mounment over the grave of the lamented Geo. H. Thompson, who worked for it while a member of the legislature.

Early to bed seems to be the rule here, while formerly the howl of the drunkard was heard at all hours. It prompts the exclamation: Oh, what a change! The recent election shows a poll of six hundred thousand votes for prohibition, and it looks as if the democrats were going to destroy the whiskey saloons, as most of the Southern States are closing them by stringent laws looking to their suppression. I see it stated in the papers that along the line of railroad from Cairo to New Orleans does not average a drinking saloon to the hundred miles, and it is hoped the same can be said of the Eastern Shore ere long. Duty to our rising population demands. More anon. INDEX.

The President at Harvard.

President Cleveland, together with Secretaries Bayard, Lamar, Whitney and Endicott, attended the 250th anniversary of Harvard University on Monday, and were received with the highest marks of respect. The President made an address, which was well received. Mr. James Russell Lowell paid him a handsome compliment in his address before the Alumni. The following is an extract from the President's address:

"If I am to speak of the President of the United States, I desire to mention as the most pleasant and characteristic feature of our system of government the nearness of the people to their President and other high officials. A close view afforded our citizens of the acts and conduct of those to whom they have intrusted their interests serves as a regulator and check upon temptation and pressure in office, and is a constant reminder that diligence and faithfulness are the measure of public duty, and such a relation between President and people ought to leave but little room in popular judgment and conscience for unjust and false accusations, and for malicious slanders invented for the purpose of undermining the people's trust and confidence in administration or their government. No public officer should desire to check the utmost freedom of criticism as to all official acts, but every right-thinking man must concede that the President of the United States should not be put beyond the protection which American love of fair play and decency accords to every American citizen. This trait of our national character would not encourage, if their extent and tendency were fully appreciated, the silly, mean and cowardly lies that every day are found in the columns of certain newspapers, which violate every instinct of American manliness and in ghoulish glee desecrate every sacred relation of private life. There is nothing in the highest office that the American people can confer which necessarily makes their President altogether selfish, scheming and untrustworthy.

On the contrary, the solemn duties which confront him to tend to a sober sense of responsibility; the trust of the American people and an appreciation of their mission among the nations of the earth should make him a patriotic man, and the tales of distress which reach him from the humble and lowly and needy and afflicted in every corner of the land cannot fail to quicken within him every kind impulse and sensibility. After all it comes to this: The people of the United States have one and all a sacred mission to perform, and your President, not more surely than every citizen who loves his country, must assume part of the responsibility of the demonstration to the world of the success of popular government. No man can hide his talent under a napkin and escape the condemnation which his slothfulness deserves, nor evade the stern sentence which his faithlessness invites.

REFORMED ELECTION METHODS.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun writes: At the congressional elections last week, so far as heard from, there was no complaint from any responsible quarter of force or fraud in any of the large cities. Such has not been the case for twenty years. In New York, the largest city in the country, and where there were so many conflicting interests involved in both the local and general elections, there has not been the slightest whisper of any impropriety. In Cincinnati, where, two years ago, the republican United States marshal appointed a perfect army of ruffians and put revolvers in their hands, with instructions to shoot, no complaint comes of any browbeating or ballot box stuffing. It is so everywhere, and the fact furnishes another illustration of the regard for popular rights held and maintained by this administration. All this has been effected at a cost for federal supervision at the polls not much more than a fraction of what has been expended on the occasion of similar elections in the past. In some of the big cities no deputy marshals were appointed, in others a much reduced number, and in every instance the stern injunction was laid upon these officials that under no circumstances would any partisan conduct be tolerated upon their part, and that they must confine themselves rigorously to the strict line of duty.

IF you want to live happy and be comfortable this winter buy your carpets from Crane Brothers, for they sell cheap and deliver them free. See advertisement. *

THE recent elections in Baltimore cost the city 13,813.26.

ACRES OF BURNING COAL.

The Flames Eating Under Mount Pleasant and Threatening Destruction.

An eager, unquenchable, fiery flame is eating its way through acres of coal land out in Westmoreland county, Pa. The Standard Mine, the largest individual plant in the Connellsville region, was sold to the Frick Company several years ago for eight hundred thousand dollars. It includes 1,200 acres of land and 573 coke ovens and employs over seven hundred men. A subterranean fire is now burning in the mine, which is beyond control and so far has baffled every effort to extinguish the flames. A miner's lamp set fire to some hay wagons about ten days ago and since then the mine has been burning fiercely. A number of mining experts have tried various plans to subdue the flames, but while they worked well in theory they were found good for naught in practice. The fire has already penetrated a gas farm and is working its way beneath the township of Mount Pleasant.

A scheme is now under consideration to drill a ten-inch hole at the farther end of the gas farm heading for the purpose of taking advantage of the grade, which falls toward the shaft and flood the entries. The main danger is from fire damp. The flames are working in the direction of some exhausted coal cells, which have been abandoned and closed on account of the gas. The fire is creeping slowly but surely that way and it is only the question of a few hours to determine whether there will be a gas explosion upon an unexampled basis that will destroy a goodly portion of Mount Pleasant and undermine many inhabitable houses.

The bosses are greatly depressed over the situation. The far-reaching effects of the calamity may be imagined when it is stated that to labor it means a stoppage of work to eight hundred men and the consequent cessation of the payroll, which runs to $40,000 a month. To capital it means a loss of daily revenue of $2,400 and an output of 1,800 tons of coal a day.

Figures that Explain.

Baltimore Sun.

A glance at the election returns from Virginia shows that the republican victory in that State was not owing to an increased republican vote, but to the singular apathy of the democrats. A few random samples of county returns show this. In Augusta county, where both of the congressional candidates reside, the vote cast on Tuesday aggregated 6,047, against 7,095 in 1884, a falling off of 1,048, of which the democratic candidate sustained a loss of 901, and the republican 147. In Rockingham county the vote fell off 1,267 compared with two years ago, of which the republicans lost 331 and the democrats 946. In Page county the vote was 1,748, against 2,422, two years ago, the falling off affecting the democrats more than the republicans. In Botetourt county the vote fell from 2,000 to 1,350, the democrats again sustaining most largely the decreased vote. So it is plain to see that general apathy did the damage to the Virginia democracy and gave the majority of the State delegation to the republicans.

Answer—Problem.

Answer to problem in last week's KENT NEWS: The young lady's age is 16 years. Will she please send her card to PAUL M. STRAYER, 128 S. Poppleton Street, Baltimore?

I submit the following problem to the readers of the KENT NEWS:

1 per cent. of the number of bricks, 9 inches long and 2 inches thick in a wall 45 feet long, 6 feet high and two feet thick, is equal to 180 per cent of my age plus my father's age. My mother's age being taken from my father's, the result will be equal to 20 per cent of my father's age. My mother's age is 40 years. What is my age?

After Forty years' experience in the preparation of more than One Hundred Thousand applications for patents in the United States and Foreign countries, the publishers of the Scientific American continue to act as solicitors for patents, caveats, trade-marks, copyrights, etc., for the United States, and to obtain patents in Canada, England, France, Germany, and all other countries. Their experience is unequaled and their facilities are unsurpassed.

Drawings and specifications prepared and filed in the Patent Office on short notice. Terms very reasonable. No charge for examination of models or drawings. Advice by mail free.

Patents obtained through Munn & Co. are noticed in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, which has the largest circulation and is the most influential newspaper of its kind published in the world. The advantages of such a notice every patentee understands.

This large and splendidly illustrated newspaper is published WEEKLY at $3.00 a year, and is admitted to be the best paper devoted to science, mechanics, inventions, engineering works, and other departments of industrial progress, published in any country. It contains the names of all patentees and title of every invention patented each week. Try it four months for one dollar. Sold by all newsdealers.

If you have an invention to patent write to Munn & Co., publishers of Scientific American, 361 Broadway, New York.

A COMPLIMENT.—The Easton Gazette, a republican paper published in Talbot, thus compliments Congressman Gibson: We find it almost as easy to rejoice over the result of the election in this district as to lament. While as republicans we regret the result, as the friends of Mr. Gibson we are pleased. If it was written in the book of fate that we were to be represented by a democrat in Congress, we are gratified to know it was also written that we were to be represented by such a man as our esteemed fellow-citizen, and not by some other man for whom we could not have any respect or kind feelings. Although we wish that Mr. Hodson had been successful, we offer to Mr. Gibson our sincere congratulations and express our hopes that his second term in Congress will bring honor to himself and reflect honor upon his constituency.

THE TARIFF AND STEEL RAIL MAKERS.—The demonstration of the iniquity of the present tariff on steel rails furnished by Representative Wm. L. Scott, of the Erie, Pa., district, who has just been re-elected to Congress, is impressive. He shows that the seven or eight makers of steel rails in this country, under the cover afforded by the tariff on imported rails, have in the last eighteen months been able, by an agreement among themselves, to advance the price of rails from $25.50 per ton to $33 per ton. As the advance in the cost of production in that time has been but 10 per cent., or about $2 50 per ton, there has been an advance of $5 per ton, "without any necessity for it." On the 1,500,000 tons of rails produced, the seven or eight firms have thus pocketed an extra profit of $7,500,000. The workingman got not a cent of it. This profit comes ultimately out of the traveling and trading public in the shape of high passenger and freight rates.

Isaac S. Rogers, plaintiff, vs.
Albert L. Corey and the unknown heirs of Samuel Reed, defendants.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity.

THE object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of a lot of land and the improvements near Fairlee in Kent county, Maryland, containing four acres more or less and sold by Isaac S. Rogers to Samuel Reed, late of Kent county, deceased, for the payment of a balance of the purchase money of said lot still due and unpaid and amounting to two hundred and seventy-six dollars with interest from January 1st, 1870.

The Bill states: First, That the plaintiff Isaac S. Rogers sold said house and lot to the said Samuel Reed on the 9th day of November, 1866, for the sum of five hundred dollars payable as follows, namely: Fifty dollars on the signing of the agreement of purchase; one hundred dollars January 1, 1867; one hundred dollays January 1, 1868; one hundred dollars January 1, 1869, and the residue one hundred dollars January 1, 1870, with interest in the meantime annually on the amount unpaid from time to time.

Second, That the said Samuel Reed entered into possession of said house and lot in pursuance of said purchase and made the following payments on account namely: Fifty dollars November 9, 1866; one hundred dollars January 3, 1867; one hundred dollars, January 15, 1868, with all interest up to January 1, 1870, on the amount unpaid, but that there is still due and unpaid on account of the principal of said purchase money, two hundred and seventy-six dollars with interest from January 1, 1870.

Third, That the said Samuel Reed died in the year 1879 or 1880 intestate, and that letters of administration have been granted upon his personal estate to Albert L. Corey, of Kent county, Maryland, who has fully administered the same, but that no part of the amount due said Isaac S. Rogers has been paid out of said personal estate.

Fourth, That the said Samuel Reed left no descendants or heirs so far as said Isaac S. Rogers has been able to ascertain, and that if any such heirs exist their name and residences are unknown to said Isaac S. Rogers, and that since the death of said Samuel Reed, the said Albert L. Corey has received the rents and profits of said house and lot in behalf of the unknown heirs of said Samuel Reed.

Fifth, That said house and lot cannot be sold for a sum sufficient to pay the purchase money still due to said Isaac S. Rogers, and that said Rogers is entitled to an account of said rents and profits from said Albert L. Corey, and to have the same applied in aid of the payment or the residue of said purchase money.

It is thereupon this 23d day of October, 1886, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county in Equity, that the plaintiff causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent County once in each of four successive weeks before the first day of December, 1886, to give notice to the said unknown heirs of said Samuel Reed of the object of this Bill, warning them to appear in this Court in person or by Solicitor on or before the first day of March next, to show cause, if any they haye, why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
