Cambridge Oct. 27th 1837.

Dear Sir.

I wish to say to you that I have been disappointed in my expectation about Emigrants - we have a strong opposition against the emigration from some whites and nearly all the blacks -

I send you two names. and perhaps I may be able to send more by next mail - the two I send you are named. John Hooper a man born free. and Joshua Cornish a slave. whos master wishes to go and will manumit him on that condition - they are both worthy men. and will make good Citizens of Africa. they are industrious. and as far as I know honest. yours in haste
