SATURDAY MORNING..........Nov. 4, 1886.

LETTER FROM ROCK HALL.

Mr. Joseph Downey's Crystal Wedding —Various Other Matters.

EDITORS OF NEWS:—The event of the week in our village was the crystal wedding of our pioneer merchant, Jos. Downey, which came off on Tuesday evening at his neat residence on Tolchester avenue. The presents were numerous, beautiful and useful, from a butter-dish to full set of fruit and ice-cream bowls and dishes; a number of Baltimore merchants being represented by them. Being a temperance man no punch bowls or wine glasses marred the beauty of the scene. All were highly appreciated by the bride, who feels greatly in debt for the kind remembrance of near as well as distant friends. The abundance of good things were equally appreciated by those in attendance. The cards of the following persons were seen in company with the pretty glassware: James Bailey & Son, Bolton & Co., Vickery & Co., Cecil & Co., Cunningham & Co., Bodee & Co., Ramsy, Baker & Co., Johnson & Co., A. P. Sharp, Mrs. A. P. Sharp, George M. Sharp and others of Baltimore, who failed to send their cards. The evening passed off pleasantly with fine music by several of the Rock Hall young ladies.

From common report it is likely we will have some more crystal weddings about the year 1900, the young men finding the society of refined, cultivated ladies far more agreeable and elevating than the vulgar company always found around a whiskey saloon.

The fine rains lately followed by warm weather is bringing in view the beautiful fields of wheat and grain is taking a fresh start.

Some hogs are still dying, Mr. James Beck having lost a number. In fattening hogs few seem to realize the importance of abundance of good water. Nothing but water is a solvent for the food which must be held in a weak solution, so that it can be taken up and carried through the system and be converted into flesh and fat and at the same time dissolve the feocal matter and make an easy passage through the bowels as quick as possible, for the absorption of this matter both in animal and human life is often the cause of blood poisoning. Whiskey will no more mix with or dissolve this matter than oil and water will mix. Water is nature s solvent and unfortunately poor animals can only speak of this thirst by collecting around their usual watering places, which are often found dry. INDEX.

Notes From Betterton.

Messrs. Editors:—Some time ago I saw an article in the KENT NEWS in reference to a "Belled Buzzard." Allow me to say to your readers that there is another belled buzzard at large. It was caught by Mr. John Brice of this place, at the time the wind was blowing very hard, and the buzzard seemed to have been flying low to keep as much out of the wind as possible, when he became entangled in a tree in Mr. Brice's yard and fell to the ground. Before he could pick himself up properly, Mr. Brice ran and caught him, marched him down to the bay and back, put a small sleigh-bell on his wing and let him go. Look out for him. If you find him he is our buzzard.

Mrs. Jas. T. Crew has been very sick for the last week or two, but is now getting allright.

Mrs. Matilda Duer and daughter, Miss Estelle, of Pocomoke city, have been visiting Mrs. Duer's daughters—Mrs. Jas. and Mrs. D. C. Crew,—for some time past. Miss Lillie Duer, of Pocomoke city is spending a few days with us.

Quite a number of duckers have been down from Philadelphia this fall, but ducks have not been very plentiful. TREBOR.

November 24th, 1886.

A BIG BOQUET.—On the recent occasion of the accession of the sultan to the throne, Count Abraham Camondo showed his loyalty by offering his majesty a magnificent bouquet of nearly four yards in height and two and a-half in circumference. The structure represented a lemon tree surmounted by a crescent, inscribed with the name of the sultan on one side in French and on the other in Turkish. The sultan was greatly touched by this sign of devotion, and caused the eight men who carried the monster bouquet to the palace to be adequately rewarded. The construction of the bouquet occupied ten persons for a a whole week, and was, no doubt, a triumph of art, casting far into the shade even the marvels which are daily put before the eyes of the London public in the show windows of the West End florists.

QUITE a novel and striking sight, says the Cambridge News, was witnessed by a rider on Blackwater road on Thursday in the form of a gunning party comprised of both ladies and gentlemen. The ladies looked perfectly at home with their guns on their shoulders, and seemed to handle them with as much skill as did the gallant young men at their sides. Each face beamed with delight as they held aloft the string of partridges so lately brought low. The gentlemen were laden with bunches of brilliant autumn leaves and bright red berries gathered from the woods near by, and as the party tramped along it looked quite picturesque.

"WHAT is the matter, Johnny?" asked a Texas widower of his little son.

"You are not acting right, father. You are not acting as a father should. You have secrets."

"What have I done, Johnny?"

"You have engaged yourself to Miss Jones, without consulting me. I had already picked out a wife for you, but as you make your bed so you must lie in it. All I can say is that a wayward father is apt to make a bad husband."

AN old lady of seventy, being left a widow and destitute, on being asked what she would do to make a living, said:

"I'm sure I cannot tell. Unless I become a ballet girl."

A SOCIETY recently organized in a young ladies' seminary, not a great way from Boston, had as its constitution, "This society is organized for the purpose of having a good time."

WHEN they get into a scrimmage down in Mexico it always takes poeple quite a spell to tell accurately which is the government and which is the revolution.

"No," said Fogg, "I never tell a story, because I do not like to be bored by the story which every man who hears one feels in duty bound to tell in return."

"WHY do you drink that vile stuff?" said a temperance man to a toper. "Because, my dear sir," was the crushing reply, "it isn't thick enough to eat."

ENTERING the asylum for inebriates he asked: "Do you treat drunkards here?" "Yes, sir." "Well, I'm one. Where's yer bar?"

YOU can be cured of RHEUMATISM by using RUSSIAN RHEUMATISM CURE.

It is not a cure-all. It cures nothing but Rheumatism, but it is a safe and sure cure for that disease. Thousands who have been cured will testify to its reliability.

MR. G. B. ULMER, of 1621 N. 12th St., Phila., wrote four months after he had been cured by the Russian Rheumatism Cure (waiting to see whether it would not return), saying he was bedridden with the disease, and thought he would lose his reason from the agony he had to endure; and inside of two weeks he was cured by this remedy, although he had his house physician, and used other remedies without result, previous to trying this wonderful remedy.

MR. CHAS. A. COX, American and Morris St., Phila., said: "My wife was bedridden, and her condition made me despair. Doctors and everything else failed. The Russian Rheumatism Cure cured her in one week."

EVERY BOX HAS BOTH TRADE MARKS AND SIGNATURE Twice this Size. None Genuine without this Signature and both Trade Marks.

For RHEUMATISM Only. PRICE $2.50 PER BOX.

For complete information, Descriptive Pamphlet, with testimonials, free.

For sale by all druggists. If one or the other is not in position to furnish it to you, do not be persuaded to take anything else, but apply direct to the General Agents, PFAELZER BROS. & CO. 819 & 821 Market Street, Philadelphia.

OUR FORE-FATHERS SOAP

Ask Your Grocer For It.

FAC-SIMILE OF THE LABEL ON THE WRAPPER.

NO MORE A MYSTERY. THE REASONS GIVEN.

WHY DOES THE CLOTHING TEAR SO EASILY?

ANSWER.—From the use of strong and impure Soap, made up in salable forms and shapes, with which the market is flooded. If you want to be right sure use ECKERS' OUR FOREFATHERS' SOAP—three connecting 4-inch cakes, making each bar one foot long; weight 22½ ounces—recommended by the Best Families, Hotels and Institutions throughout the country. It is prepared by the Grecian Purifying, Boiling and Settling Process, from fresh, clean and selected butchers' tallow. By its use you run no risk of contracting any skin disease; no stiffness of the arms or wrist. A great saving of time and labor. WASHING CLOTHES WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING. You can use it as you wish, but to wash without boiling or scalding observe these directions: Take lukewarm water, rub with soap particularly on dirty spots, soak half an hour or more, gently rub on board and your clothes will be clean. Try it for one month and you will be convinced of its great advantages. VERY IMPORTANT TO KNOW.—That the best remedy for washing flannels to keep them from shrinking—wash in lukewarm water with FOREFATHERS' or ECKERS' BOARD OF HEALTH SOAP (the greatest disinfectant known), and dry in a warm room; cold water hardens flannels and drying in cold air shrinks them. Ask your grocer for it. ECKERS' SOAPS WILL WASH WITH OR WITHOUT BOILING OR SCALDING.
