Respected Friend Sudlers Roads November 12th 1837

In Relation to Emigrants for this Trip there is none that will go from this Neighbourhood there is so far as we can Judge from what what they say Several that intend going next Spring say Js Price & Hamiley Ben Price & do John Boardley & James Fox these are all steady industrious men and such as ought to be Relyed on but I have lost confidence in them in this Respect perhaps too much yet I do believe that the Prices will go next Spring

I am happy to inform you that my helth and the helth of my family is quite as good as when you was here the helth of the Neighbourhood is better this fall than I ever knew it Buisness is Dull at present but it must Revive as soon as Cost is over when money will again circulate there is nothing new of any importance among us I intend over the first of next month my Respect to you and family

yours
Respectfully
Vincent Offley
