Hond. Sir

Within you have my quarterly account, they are compound entirely of expences attendant on my residence at Hanover. viz —

Travelling from Windsor to Hanover, twice	$5 - 00
Cash paid 4 nights board at Tavern	1 - 00
" " Hire of Room during term	8 " 00
" " for Cleaning the same	" - 50
" " hire of Bed & bedding	3 - 00
" " for 1 lamp 25¢ — 3/4 Gall Oil $1. — 1 Broom 25¢	1 - 50
" " for 1 Bucket 37¢ — 1 Basin 37¢ — 1 Tumbler 12½	- 88
" " for 3/4 Cord Wood 1.25 — Sawing do 37	1 - 62
" " 12 Weeks Board & Washing — @ $2 "	24 " 00
" " Lecture Fees	50 - 00
" " Matriculation Fees	2.00
Incidental Expences	" 92
Dolls.	$98 " 42

On arriving at Hanover I was compelled to lodge at a Tavern until I could obtain a room, & have it furnished.

On Dr Hall's arrival in Windsor he wrote to me desiring I would meet him there which will account for my having charged Five Dolls t. Travelling expences. Enclosed you have a receipt for Amt paid for Room hire; the price was high yet I could not do otherwise than pay it.

I regret that I am not able at present to furnish you with the desired account of my yearly expenditures. The only difficulty is that Dr Phelps has not determined the price for his instruction, or the room I occupy in his house. You have instructed me to include Books &c. the prices of which it will out of my power to estimate, the prices of which they are at least twenty five per cent higher than they are in Baltimore. I think that
