Dear Sir,

Your valued favor of the 14th inst
~~and~~ duly to hand, I thank you for the information it contains, which you have answered my enquiries. You have however omitted to notice one important point viz - the price of your Charter Parties. From the enquiries I have recently made in this place, relative to the charter of vessels for such an expedition, I apprehend some difficulty in obtaining a suitable vessel except at what appears to me an extravagant rate. To meet this difficulty in advance, I am induced to inquire, whether your friends, superintendence can be afforded to their embarkation from Baltimore, in the event of my not being able to send them from hence = 2d What will be the probable expense per head (31 in all, equal to about 24 full Rations) 3d Will your Society state, made take their support at Cape Palmas, for six months after
